PREFACE TO VOL. LXXI

Following is a synopsis of the documents contained in this volume:

CCXXIX. This is a letter (dated at Paris, February 12, 1759) from Alain X. de Launay to one of the Ursuline nuns at Quebec (whose business affairs in France are cared for by Jesuit friends). He expresses his sympathy for the perils to which the Sisters are exposed by the war, and commends their decision to order this year no supplies from France, lest the English capture these. He warns them to practice the utmost economy, as their revenues are now much smaller.

CCXXX. Soon after the capture of Quebec, Father Well writes (October 17, 1759) to De Launay, endeavoring to make arrangements with the latter for the conveyance of letters from France to the Fathers in Canada, via Scotland. The latter are waiting to learn whether Canada may hope for peace.

CCXXXI. De Launay again writes (April 19, 1760) to his Ursuline correspondent at Quebec. Although the nuns are in sore need of assistance, he cannot send them supplies until he can ascertain whether these will reach them in safety. He mentions with approval the humanity displayed by the English conquerors, and looks forward to the establishment of peace between England and France. He sends no remittance to the nuns, but advises them to draw upon him for what they need.

CCXXXII. Another letter of De Launay's (dated at St. Malo, December 24, 1768) is addressed to an Ursuline nun at Paris. He has received no news this year from the Canadian Jesuits, and requests that she will inquire for him about their condition and welfare from the French minister of war. De Launay informs his correspondent that he is preaching to her sisters of the St. Malo convent, the first Jesuit to officiate therein since the suppression of the order (1762). He gives her advice as to the management of a certain estate; and offers to aid her in procuring priests to say masses for her convent — of which he undertakes to provide for 2,400, himself saying 300 during the year. The letter closes with messages to some of his friends.

CCXXXIII. Father Meurin, the last Jesuit in the Illinois missions, writes (June 11, 1768) to Bishop Briand, of Quebec, acknowledging the receipt of letters appointing him vicar-general for Briand in Illinois. For this office Meurin urges his lack of training and experience, and his infirmities and advanced age (he is now sixty-one years old), saying that he is "no longer good for anything but to be laid in the ground." He explains why he has not presented at New Orleans the Bishop's letters, by relating the hostile act of the Capuchins there; as soon as they hear of his appointment as vicar, they issue a writ of proscription against him, which he escapes only by taking refuge at Kaskaskia, now in English territory. Meurin has also incurred the displeasure of the English commandant by attempting to prevent the resale to an Englishman of the former Jesuit property at Kaskaskia; and the commandant forbids him to exercise any powers of his vicariate until the British governor-general of Canada shall confirm them.

Meurin asks the bishop to decide whether he shall admit to the sacraments and absolve Beauvais, who is wrongfully holding certain articles belonging to the old Jesuit chapel at Kaskaskia. During the past four years, Meurin has received from the parish no tithes, and has obtained his living only from the gifts of charitable parishioners, and fees for masses said. He asks the bishop to decide whether the members of the parish shall not be compelled to pay their tithes. Meurin feels that he is growing old and feeble, and asks the bishop to send him to one of the clergy-houses of the church, as a retreat wherein to die in peace. He adds, however, that he hears alarming rumors that the Jesuits are to be expelled from the British dominions.

Meurin desires the episcopal decision on certain questions — among them, “whether Roman Catholics can swear on the Protestant Bible.” The earlier commandants at Kaskaskia had forbidden Protestants to attend Roman Catholic services unless they were willing to observe the forms of that church while there. The present commandant will not allow Meurin to solemnize a marriage without his permission; nor will he allow the militia to parade under arms at a church procession.

CCXXXIV. La Brosse writes (September 23, 1776) to a lady whose son is to study with him for the priesthood. He states that he is going to spend the winter with the savages far down the great river, and not at Rimouski, as some one has informed her. Accordingly he desires her son Baptiste to come to him to begin his studies.

CCXXXV. This important document enumerates and describes the fiefs and seigniories belonging to the Jesuits in Canada in 1781-88.

The first of these is Notre Dame des Anges (commonly known as Charlesbourg). On this domain stand a church and clergy-house. Four domains or farms therein are reserved for the use of the seigniors; on one of these is a ferry across the St. Charles River, maintained by the Fathers. Attached to this seigniorship is a dependent fief, called Fief Bégon, now belonging to an Englishman. In Notre Dame des Anges is also included Isle aux Ruaux, which the Fathers conceded to the late councilor Guillemin; but, since the conquest, it has fallen into other hands, and they have received from it no rents.

Next comes the seigniorship of St. Gabriel, whereon are the Huron villages of Ancienne and Jeune Lorette; it contains two churches, and two residences for their curés. The third is the seigniorship of Belair, some thirty miles above Quebec. In connection with these estates the document notes many interesting particulars regarding the feudal land tenure of early Canadian law.

The seigniorship of Sillery has two dependent fiefs, those of Monceaux and Ste. Ursule, the latter belonging to the Ursuline nuns of Quebec; it also contains a church. The Fathers have also an estate at Batiscan, given to them in 1639 by Jacques de la Ferté; on these lands are a church and curé's residence, and a mill. The same benefactor gave them also, in 1651, the seigniory of Cap de la Magdeleine, which has a church and clergy-house, and three dependent fiefs. The Fathers possess another seigniory near Three Rivers, adjoining the common lands of that town; and another, consisting of the island of St. Christophe in the St. Maurice River. Within the town of Three Rivers lies still another estate—a small tract, granted to the Algonkin chief Pachirini by Montmagny and his successor; after the chief's death, the land was given by Governor Callières to the Jesuits.

The tenth and last of these seigniories is La Prairie de la Magdeleine, opposite Montreal. This has two churches and clergy-houses. The enumeration of the estates is followed by a list (omitted in our text) of the centsitaires resident thereon, with the rents paid by them.

CCXXXVI. Father Augustin de Glapion, Jesuit superior at Quebec, writes (September 10, 1788) to Hugh Finlay, a member of the Legislative Council, which body has cited the superior to appear before it, in re the vexed question of the disposal of the estates belonging to his order. He reminds his correspondent of the fidelity and dutiful behavior of the Canadian Jesuits to the English government; and that their property has been given to them by the kings of France and by private persons, or has been purchased by their own funds, for the specific purpose of maintaining the education of the savages and Canadians—a work to which every one of the Fathers has devoted his life. He also cites the capitulation of September 8, 1760, which recognized the right of the Jesuits to their property, and to the proceeds of its sale. These considerations lead him to expect from the English government recognition of the Jesuits' rights.

CCXXXVII. In this document, Glapion offers (December 31, 1789) to the citizens of Canada all the possessions of the Jesuits in that country, to be applied to the same use as hitherto, the instruction of Indian and Canadian youth. Certain conditions are stipulated in this transfer, which relate to the maintenance and comfort of the four Jesuits still living in Canada; these include the free use of all their churches, residences, and personal property, and an annual pension of 3,000 livres each for the four Fathers, for the remainder of their lives.

CCXXXVIII. This final document of our series is a letter written (March 13, 1791) by Joseph O. Plessis, secretary to the bishop of Quebec, to one Marchand, principal of the Montreal college. Father Well, the last Jesuit at the latter town, is in a very feeble condition, and Casot, who still lives at Quebec, has been asked to visit his confrère (whose death occurs, indeed, but a few days later); but he declines to go, for which course Plessis thinks he may have excellent reasons. The latter describes some notable church services recently held at Quebec, including "three fine sermons" by himself; he also arranges with his correspondent for the saying of certain masses.

For the further information and convenience of students, we have given in this volume: A list of the governors and intendants of New France (1608-1760), and of English governors of Canada (1760-1805); a catalogue of Jesuit missionaries to New France and Louisiana (1611-1800), prepared for this volume by Rev. Arthur E. Jones, S.J., of Montreal; lists of the documents and illustrations published in this series; a list of authorities (printed and MSS.) cited or consulted in the preparation of the series; and some necessary errata and addenda, inevitable in so long a series as the present.

Vols. LXXII. and LXXIII. will be devoted to an analytical index to the seventy-one volumes of text. The Editor's final Preface will be given in Vol. LXXII.

MA REVERENDE MERE

La paix de N. S.

Je partage avec bien de la douleur la triste situation où vous réduit la continuation de la guerre, dont le feu paroît S'allumer de plus en plus. Vous êtes menacées en particulier d'en éprouver les rigueurs et nous Sommes tres allarmés Sur le sort de toute la Colonie. Tout retentit des efforts que vont faire les Anglois pour envahir tout ce que nous possédons dans l'Amerique Sept^e. Je crois que Vous prenez encore le parti le plus sage, en ne faisant rien venir de France cette année. Il est Vrai que Vous achetez fort cher ce qui est necessaire à la vie: mais vous l'aurez au moins; au lieu que ce que j'acheterois icy pour Vous Seroit probablement enlevé et perte pour perte, il vaut mieux que Vous perdiez avec profit, que de perdre purement. Nos missionnaires n'ont pas été plus heureux que Vous. Comme Votre recolte a été assez abondante, je Suppose que Vous n'avez pas besoin de farine. ainsi je ne Vous envoie point. Je ferai honneur a la Lettre dechange que Vous tirez sur moi a l'ordre de M. Vincelotte. Vous avez cy inclus les Comptes de cette année et un chiffon de la précédente que j'y joints sur ce que Vous me marquez que les Anglois ont pris mes Doubles de l'année dernière. Si le Seigneur Vous

MY REVEREND MOTHER,
The peace of Our Lord.

I share in your grief because of the sad condition in which you are placed by the continuation of the war, the flames of which seem to burn more and more fiercely. You in particular are threatened with its rigors, and we are greatly alarmed for the fate of the whole Colony. Everything resounds with the efforts about to be made by the English to overwhelm all our possessions in North America. I think that you are adopting the wisest course in having nothing sent out from France this year. It is true, you will pay very dear for the necessaries of life, but at least you will have them; while what I might purchase here for you would probably be captured, and, loss for loss, it would be better that you should lose with profit than meet absolute loss. Our missionaries have not been more fortunate than you. As your crop was fairly abundant, I presume that you need no flour, so I send you none. I will honor the Bill of exchange which you draw on me to the order of Monsieur Vincelotte. Enclosed you will find the Accounts for this year, and for a portion of the previous one, which I add because you write me that the English took my Duplicates for last year. If the Lord preserve you in Canada, send me next

You will Greatly oblige me If Your occupations permit You To transmit to me, By way Of England, The Answer From Rome concerning The profession of Father huguet and My Own. You doubtless are Aware that we have received Nothing by The french frigates; and that, as Quebec has been surrendered To The english, we can look for nothing more, except Through england. I hope that The Reverend Father Procurator for Scotland will inform you of Some means Of conveying thither Your Letters, and of sending Them to us by The Latest Ships. Reverend Father St. pé is so distressed and Father Glapion So occupied that they may quite easily forget This Matter, which we nevertheless have at Heart.

Other persons will relate to You The details Of our Disasters and of our melancholy Situation. I strive to Console myself by rendering spiritual services to the german and Scotch Catholics who are in the Garrisons here. If You Think that there is reason to fear that Letters will not reach My address, Enclose Them to Mr. James Barbuts, Captain in Amerst's Regiment, or to Mr. Magdonale, Captain in The Scotch Grenadiers;¹ Those Gentlemen will Assuredly send Them to me. Je vois par vos deux Lettres en quelle triste situation vous vous trouvez par les malheurs de la guerre. Nous ne pouvons que plaindre votre sort, quoique nous ayons dans notre religion des motifs bien capables de nous consoler au milieu de toutes ces calamités. Je voudrois pouvoir vous procurer les secours dont vous manquez mais je ne sçais pas encore si la voye d'Angleterre est bien sure. Je vais la tenter pour nos missionnaires et si elle me reussit, je feray aussi quelque tentative en votre consideration. on m'a assuré que les vainqueurs usoient très humainement de leur victoire et qu'ils avoient conçu de l'estime et de la veneration pour vos vertus et de la reconnaissance des services que vous leur rendez. MADAME,
I see by your two Letters in what a sad condition you are placed by the misfortunes of war. We can but pity your lot, although in our religion we have many motives well fitted to afford us consolation amid all these calamities. I wish that I could procure for you the assistance that you need; but I know not whether the route via England is as yet very safe. I will try it for our missionaries, and, if successful, I will also make an attempt on your account. I am assured that the victors are making a very humane use of their victory, and that they have expressed esteem and veneration for your virtues, and gratitude for the services which you render them. God be ever praised therefor. Your funds are increasing here while you do not draw on me. I give you no particulars, since you know what your ordinary revenue is— which I have collected, and for which I will account to you when peace is proclaimed. There is talk of peace; pray the Lord that it may soon be concluded. We all need it, but our sins prevent it, and we are not yet sufficiently punished. I commend myself to the prayers of your Community. I present my very humble respects to

Letter of Father Sébastien Louis Meurin to Monseigneur Briand, Bishop of Quebec.

MONSEIGNEUR,

On the 26th of last august, 1767, I received your first letters, by which you did me the honor of appointing me your vicar-general in This part of your diocese. At the same time, I received your mandates regarding the jubilee and the preface of the holy trinity, etc.

On the 29th of january, 1768, I received your second letters, confirming the first. I would almost wish that my self-esteem might prevent me from telling you, Monseigneur, that I am as unworthy as any one can be of the honor which you confer on me; and more than ever incapable of such an office, of which I know but the name. I have never been acquainted with any jurisprudence, either notarial, pontifical, or any other. I have been too long left to myself, and I barely know the duties of a simple priest. It is no longer possible for me to learn anything else.

My letters of last spring must have omitted to inform you of my age, and of my weakness of body and mind. I retain only a small portion of weak judgment, have no memory, and possess still less firmness. I Need a guide both for the soul and for the body; for my eyes, my ears, and my legs are likewise very feeble. I am no longer good for anything but to be laid in the ground. I trust, mis en terre. J'espere Monseigneur que vous voudrés bien me pardonner de n avoir pas porté ni envoyé vos graces et faveurs a la nouvelle orleans selon vos lettres et instructions que j'ai cru devoir laisser ignorer a nos cheres vrsulines memes, de peur de leur attirer du chagrin quelles ne meritent pas.

Comment y aurois-je été reçu après y avoir signé (pour obtenir la permission de revenir aux Illinois) que je my comporterois toujours en vicaire des Reverends Peres Capucins sujet a leur visites, reprimendes, et corrections, et jurisdiction &c la quelle doit estre seule dans tout le missisipi &c quoique je neusse souscrit a tout cela par devant M^r. le procureur general du Roy que pour le temps que la future jurisdiction seroit reel et constatée, les forçants de convenir devant le magistrat quils ne lavoient pas encor et ne pouvoient men communiquer aucune partie, je neusse pas été mieux reçu. en voicy la preuve. Cest qua la premiere nouvelle, quils ont eus par les voyageurs, que vous maviés honoré du grand vicariat, larrêt de proscription a été lancé contre moi et eut été executé, si averti par un ami en place, je ne leusse evité en me retirant sur la partie angloise ou, en prenant incontinent serment de fidelité comme ancien domicilier, je me suis mis a couvert des poursuites espagnoles qui me declarent criminel detat pour avoir reçu la jurisdiction de quebec si contraire aux intentions et interests de lespagne &c.

autre contradiction a vos lettres, Monseigneur, et que je ne dois pas vous laisser ignorer, d autant plus quon massure en porter plaintes à son excellence

Monseigneur, that you will be good enough to forgive me for having neither carried nor sent your graces and favors to new orleans, according to your letters and instructions,—of which I have thought proper to let even our dear ursulines remain ignorant, lest they might have occasion for sorrow, which they do not deserve.

How would I have been received there after having stated over my own signature (in order to obtain permission to return to the Illinois) that I would always act as vicar of the Reverend Capuchin Fathers,—subject to their visits, their reprimands, and corrections, and to their jurisdiction, etc., which was to be the only one throughout the missisipi country? Although I might have subscribed to all that before Monsieur the procurator-general of the King, solely for such time as the future jurisdiction should be real and established,—compelling them to admit before the magistrate that as yet they possessed it not, and could not convey any portion of it to me,—I would not have been better received. Here is the proof. As soon as they heard, through the voyageurs, that you had honored me with the appointment of vicar-general, a warrant of proscription was issued against me; and it would have been executed had I not, on being warned thereof by a friend in authority, escaped from it by withdrawing to english territory. There, on at once taking the oath of allegiance as a former resident, I secured myself against the spanish prosecutions,—which declare that I am a criminal because I have received jurisdiction from quebec, which is so opposed to the intentions and interests of spain, etc.³

There is another instance of opposition to your

Monsieur de gages gouverneur general pour sa majesté Britannique Il y a un mois qu'ayant appris que le S^r. Jautard (second acquereur des biens de la mission de la s^{te} famille aux Kaskias, vendus au s^r Lagrange par monsieur Forget vicaire general de votre predecesseur et curé missionnaire en la ditte paroisse &c.) estoit en marché pour les revendre a un anglois, j'y allai former opposition de la part de messieurs de votre Seminaire qui revendiquent ce bien comme leur appartenant encor, ayant été vendu sans leur procuration et a leur insçû par celui qui nen estoit qu'œconome. je voulus encor appuyer mon opposition de votre nom, Monseigneur, pour la conservation de tous biens appartenans aux Eglises pour leur entient et celui des missionnaires que Vous daignés employer. M^r. Forbés commandant (il ny a pas encor icy de gouvernement civil) me demandat mes lettres de commission. je lui montrai vos lettres et celles de Monsieur le superieur. aux lettres de Vicariat general il me repondit que Monsieur de gâges ne leur ayant donné aucune instruction sur le p^{re}sbyt^{er}at et grand vicariat il nen pouvoit reconnoitre, et que cela paroissoit une pure entreprise de votre part et de la mienne; consequemment me faisoit expresse deffense d'user de les lettres et de prendre le titre de grand vicaire dans aucune lettre, ni acte, ni en public jusqua ce quil ait reponse de son general, et pour votre jurisdiction dans le pays et pour le bien de Ka^{as}, me promettant neanmoins quil ne seroit pas mis en vente jusque la. letters, Monseigneur, of which I must not allow you to remain in ignorance,—all the more so that I have been assured that a complaint would be made to his excellency, Monsieur de gages, governor-general for his Britannic majesty.⁴ About a month ago, having learned that Sieur jautard (second purchaser of the property of the mission of ste. famille among the Kaskias, sold to sieur Lagrange by monsieur forget, vicar-general of your predecessor, and missionary curate in the said parish, etc.) was bargaining to resell it to an englishman, I went to oppose the sale on behalf of the gentlemen of your Seminary, who claim this property as still belonging to them, through its having been sold, without their power of attorney and without their knowledge, by the person who was but the steward thereof. I also undertook to support by the use of your name, Monseigneur, my contention for the preservation of all property belonging to the Churches for their maintenance and that of the missionaries whom You deign to employ. Mr. forbés, the commandant (there is no civil government here as yet), asked me for the letters containing my commission; I showed him your letters, and those of Monsieur the superior. As regards the letters conferring the appointment of Vicar-general, he replied that, inasmuch as Monsieur de gâges had given no instructions respecting the episcopacy and the office of vicar-general, he could not take cognizance of them; and that this seemed purely a scheme on your part and mine. He therefore expressly forbade me to use the letters, or to assume the title of vicar-general in any letter, or deed, or in public, until he should receive an answer from his general regarding both your jurisdiction in the country, and

Il y a encor dans ce village des Ka^s le bien des jesuites injustement saisis confisqué et vendu par le gouvernement françois depuis la cession du pays a langleterre. Si votre grandeur ou Vos missionaires de Canada veulent le revendiquer. pour moi je ne demende rien je suis trop vieux: mais j'y verrai toujours avec peine la chapelle et le Cimetierre profannés servir de jardin et de magazin aux anglois qui les tiennent a loyer du S^r. Jean Baptiste Bauvais qui selon larret de confiscation et le contrat de vente et d'achapt des biens &c, etoit obligé de demolir la chapelle et d'en laisser le terrain et celui du cimetierre inculte sous les débris. il dit que depuis le sub delegué executeur de l'arrêt le lui a vendu— par quel Droit? Les armoires qui servoient aux ornemens et vases sacrés, servent dans ses apartemens ainsi que les vitres d'autel et plancher &c.

Les reproches constans que je lui fais, le tiennent éloigné de moi et des sacremens depuis trois ans. Je vous supplie de me decider la dessus et si en cas quil se presente a moi ou a un autre, on peut labsoudre et dispenser de remettre cela a leglise paroissiale, cest toute ma demende. car il [a] achepté le reste je crois en bonne foi. mais non la chappelle et ses meubles qui par l'arret devoit etre detruit et consomme. the Kaskias property. He promised me, however, that the latter should not be offered for sale until then. Sieur Jautard goes to Canada, and thence to New York or London, to obtain release from the possession of the said estate. The land at Fort Chartres is also, for the same reason, in danger of being carried away by the river. I have caused to be removed, and conveyed to La Prairie du Rocher, the [illegible word in MS.] of Monsieur Gagnon and Reverend Father Luc, a Recollet, worthy missionaries. This is all I could do.⁵

There is also, in this village of the Kaskias, the property of the Jesuits which was unjustly seized, confiscated, and sold by the French government after the cession of the country to England. If your Lordship or Your missionaries in Canada wish to revindicate it. As for myself, I ask nothing: I am too old. But I would always be grieved to see the chapel and Cemetery profaned, being used as a garden and storehouse by the English, who rent them from Sieur Jean Baptiste Bauvais—who, under the decree of confiscation and the contract of sale and purchase of the property, etc., was obliged to demolish the chapel and leave its site and that of the cemetery uncultivated under the debris.⁶ He says that the subdelegate, the executor of the decree, has since sold the property to him. By what Right? The presses used for the vestments and sacred vessels are now used in his apartments, as well as the altar-cruets and the floor, etc.

My continual reproaches to him on that score have kept him away from me and from the sacraments for three years. I beg you to give me a decision on this, and to say whether, in case of his presenting Depuis quatre ans que je desert ces paroisses angloises je nen ai tiré aucune disme. je ny ai recu que de la charité de quelques uns et des retributions de messes. je les ai toujours exhorté a remettre la Disme a la fabrique pour l'entretien des Eglises et missionnaire lors quil y vient. ils ont toujours, je dis les riches, pretendus ne rien devoir lors quil ny a pas de curé resident. je vous prie de decider le Cas, faute de quoi trois missionnaires ne pouvoient subsister honetement ou seroient obligés de laisser quelques villages abandonnés. bientot je ne pourrai plus rien faire, menacé par avance detre rejetté lors que d autres seront venus je ne les en desire que plus ardemment jai toujours eu les pauvres pour moi. des pretres seront au moins aussi charitables queux et dieu maidera par eux, ou sil aime mieux, ce qui seroit bien plus avantageux pour moi, il me fera participant de son abandon. vous massignerés si vous le jugés apropos, une place ou coin dans quelquun des presbiteres du pays, dont je vous fais par avance mes très humbles remerciemens. heureux si [je] puis recevoir la consolation des Chretiens mourans avec Jesus Chri[s]t, entre les mains de quelquun de ses ministres.

Cela supposé que le gouvernement my souffriroit: car le Pere harding superieur a philadelphie mecrivoit lautomme dernier quil avoient avis et indices quon alloit traiter les jesuites en angleterre comme en france, espagne, portugal et prusse et me faisoit ses adieu dans la crainte de ne le pouvoir plus. que ne suis je assés ennemi du diable pour meriter pareil himself to me or to another, he can be granted absolution and be dispensed from handing over the said articles to the parish church. That is my only request; for I believe that he bought the remainder in good faith—but not the chapel and its furniture, which, according to the decree, were to be destroyed and burned. I beg you to decide as judge or supreme authority.

During the four years while I have ministered to these english parishes, I have received no tithes therefrom: I have received naught but what was given me out of charity by some, and the fees for masses. I have always exhorted them to pay the Tithes to the fabrique,⁷ for the support of the Churches and of the missionary, when one comes. They, I mean the rich ones, have always claimed that they owe nothing when there is no resident pastor. I beg you to decide the Case; otherwise, three missionaries would be unable to live in a suitable manner, or would be compelled to leave some villages abandoned. I shall soon be unable to do anything more. Threatened beforehand, as I am, with being cast out when others come, I wish all the more ardently for them. I have always had the poor on my side. Priests will be at least as charitable as they, and God will assist me through them; or, if he prefer,—and that would be more advantageous for me,—he will cause me to share his abandonment. If you deem advisable, you will assign me a place or a corner in one of the clergy-houses of the country, for which I tender you in advance my most humble thanks,—happy if I can have the consolation of Christians, dying with jesus Christ in the hands of one of his ministers.

This is on the supposition that the government would suffer my presence there; for Father Harding, the superior in Philadelphia,⁸ wrote me last autumn that there were warnings and signs that the jesuits were about to be treated in England as in France, Spain, Portugal, and Prussia, and he bade me farewell, fearing that he would have no other opportunity of doing so. Why am I not a great enough enemy of the devil to deserve such a treatment for the 3rd time? I forgot last year to ask you whether in the public prayers, at the benediction, etc., The orison pro rege, etc., is said, and the Te deum, if occasion arise. The question is asked Whether,— this has not hitherto happened,—when oaths are administered, Roman Catholics can swear on the Protestant Bible, owing to the falsities in it, etc. The Protestants are often present at our holy mysteries, masses, and benedictions, standing during the time of the adoration, Elevation, and Benediction of the blessed sacrament, and also when it is carried to the sick, etc. The first two commandants, Messieurs Sterling and Farmar,⁹ [illegible word in MS.] prayer, had forbidden their people to attend our prayers,—at least, unless they were willing to do as the Roman Catholics did. You can perhaps obtain the same order from the government. Our last two commandants in no wise resemble the first two. They forbade me to marry any one without a license, for which Mr. Reed charged 6 piasters,— five being for him, and one for his secretary. The present one charges only for the secretary. Is it the custom in Canada not to marry Catholics without the permission of the magistrate, or of the commandant who fills his office?

country, there has been as yet no procession of the blessed sacrament ([illegible words in MS.]) on the other side french, Spanish, and english). This year, at the request of the habitants, I asked messieurs the commandants to allow the militia to turn out under arms, as is the custom among roman catholics, to escort the blessed sacrament. This they refused. The weather was not settled; I was indisposed and fatigued, through having had a procession very early on the other Side, at ste. gennevieve. Here I had one only in the church, and likewise on the day of the octave. Is it the custom in canada to parade under arms for that feast, and could you obtain this for us? I have on several occasions been puzzled with reference to the quebec calendar, and the transfer of feasts, as I have found no one who could instruct me on this point. The only answer Monsieur forget could give us in our difficulties was, that he knew nothing about it, and that Monseigneur the bishop had often been at fault in the matter.

1st. Do feasts transferred to a sunday retain a double, which is marked therefor? 2nd. Do those which have an octave retain it entire, commencing from the day to which the feast is transferred? or is The octave transferred with the feast? If the feast of st. john be transferred to the 27th of june, and its octave come concurrently with the octave of the apostles, which is to have the preference? There are several other difficulties, which I cannot recollect at the moment, but which, as they have been experienced in canada more than here, have already given you an opportunity to decide them. I beg you to communicate your decision to us. I am also ignorant in what Consists the solemnity of the feast

I beg you to decide for us these matters explicitly; for I am very Obtuse and Short-sighted, to say the least, and am quite overcome by the too heavy burden that you have placed on my shoulders. La paix de N. S. J. C.

Votre Lettre m'a fait un plaisir infini, en me rassurant sur l'état de votre Santé, qui est assez chancelante pour allarmer vos amis après un trop long intervalle. Je bénis Le Seigneur qui vous conserve pour l'avantage de la pauvre Communauté de Québec. Voilà la première année que je Suis privé des nouvelles du Supérieur de nos pères missionnaires. Il faut que ma dernière Lettre ne luy soit pas parvenue, ou, ce qui est plus probable, que la réponse ait été interceptée. Quoiqu'il en soit, vous me rendrez un service et me ferez un grand plaisir, si vous avez la bonté de vous faire informer par M^r. De villars, auquel je présente mes respects, de l'état de nos pères en Canada et s'ils continuent a exercer librement leurs fonctions; ce qu'est devenu le procès que leur intentoient les créanciers du p. MY VERY REVEREND MOTHER,
The peace of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Your Letter gave me infinite pleasure by reassuring me with regard to the state of your Health, which is sufficiently delicate to cause alarm to your friends after too long an interval. I praise The Lord, who preserves you for the benefit of the poor Community in Quebec. This is the first year in which I Am without news from the Superior of our missionary fathers. My last Letter cannot have reached him; or, what is still more probable, the answer has been intercepted. In any case, you would render me a service and give me great pleasure if you would be kind enough to ascertain from Monsieur De villars—to whom I send my respects—the condition of our fathers in Canada, and whether they continue to exercise their ministry freely; what has become of the suit brought against them by father Lavalette's creditors, who asked nothing less than to despoil them completely, as they had succeeded in doing elsewhere;³ and Whether our former missionaries, such as fathers Richer, St. pé, and others, are still living. You will not disapprove of a Holy curiosity which leads me to take a Particular interest in them. You Know the relations that que j'avois cy-devant. Les liens de la charité, qui nous unis soient, ne sont point rompus et nous sommes toujours frères. Je vous dirai pour votre consolation que j'ai eû la satisfaction de préparer Vos Sœurs de St. Malo au renouvellement des Vœux, qui se fit le 21. 9^{bre} dernier, par une Retraite de 8. jours que je leur donnai avec l'agrément des Sup^{rs} Ecclésiastiques. Je me suis engagé a leur rendre le même service entre l'Ascension et la Pentecoste, Si le Seigneur me conserve vie et santé. J'en donnerai deux autres auparavant icy et a Dinan. Vous voyez qu'on daigne encore nous employer. Priez Dieu pour qu'il benisse le grain de la parole, qui est tombé dans une terre bien préparée. Vous nous avez toujours été bien affectionnées a Paris; mais nos mères de St. malo ne vous cèdent en rien, si même elles ne vous surpassent pas. Depuis leur etablissement dans cette ville en 1621. 2. Jesuites du College de Rennes sont venus sans interruption deux fois chaque année leur donner la Retraite. Cependant depuis notre extinction en france 1762. je suis le premier qui la leur ait donnée. C'est une Communauté très bien composée et très fervente. Si vous me mandez quelques nouvelles de nos sœurs de Québec, elles y seront sensibles et attentives.

Que voulez-vous que je vous dise au sujet de la terre d'harenvilliers? Il est facheux que le Neveu n'ait pas hérité des soins et du zele de son très digne oncle, qui pend^t. plus de 45 ans a fait valoir les interêts de nos meres de la maniere la plus noble et la plus désintéressée. Je vois avec douleur nos pauvres meres dans un grand embarras précisément dans un temps où leurs fonds leur seroient plus

I formerly had with them. The bonds of charity that united us are not broken, and we are brothers ever. I may tell you, for your consolation, that I have had the satisfaction of preparing Your Sisters of St. Malo for the renewal of their Vows, which took place on the 21st of November last, by a Retreat of 8 days, which I preached to them with the consent of the Ecclesiastical Superiors. I promised to do them the same service between Ascension and Pentecost, If the Lord preserve my life and health. I shall preach two other retreats before then, here and at Dinan. You see that people still deign to employ us. Pray to God that he may bless the seed of the word, which has fallen on well-prepared soil. You were always well affected toward us in Paris; but our mothers of St. malo are in no wise behind you, if they do not even surpass you. From the time of their establishment in this town, in 1621, 2 Jesuits from the College in Rennes came, without interruption, twice a year to preach a Retreat to them. Nevertheless, I am the first who has, since our extinction in france, in 1762, preached one to them. This is a very well-constituted and very fervent Community. If you write me some news of our sisters in Quebec, they will appreciate it highly and receive it very attentively.

What do you wish me to tell you in connection with the land of harenvilliers? It is unfortunate that the Nephew has not inherited the care and zeal of his most worthy uncle, who for more than 45 years looked after the interests of our mothers in the most noble and disinterested manner. I observe with sorrow that our poor mothers are in a state of great embarrassment, at the very moment when nécessaires. Je ne balancerois pas apres tant de délais et de monitions a luy ôter une procuration qu'il ne remplit pas. La difficulté est d'avoir sur les lieux quelqu'un qui puisse S'en acquitter et qui Veuillez S'en charger. M. le Curé de Mesle me paroitroit mériter Votre confiance plus que tout autre, Surtout S'il est de la connoissance de M. de Villars.

Si vous me chargez de faire acquitter vos messes en partie, je m'en acquitterai avec la plus grande fidélité. Si on pouvoit les mettre a 12^{s.} ou 15^{s.} qui est le tau des prêtres de la campagne, cela seroit plus facile. mais j'en trouverai a ce que j'espere, qui, faute d'autres, s'en chargeront volontiers. J'en ai deja engagé 600. et je puis répondre pour 2400. au moins. Si vous persistez dans cette disposition, je vous indiquerai à Paris un monsieur qui recevra votre argent et me le fera compter icy. J'en prens 300. pour ma part, que je tacherai d'acquitter dans l'année. Quelques uns de mes Confreres ne se feront pas prier, et cela leur fera plaisir. Comme il paroît que chaque année, on vous donnera la même commission, nous vous prions de ne nous pas oublier. Voilà sur un papier séparé ma decharge des 2400. messes que j'accepte d'avance, mais je ne les ferai valoir que lorsque j'aurai touché. Je vous prie d'etre bien persuadée des vœux que je forme pour votre conservãon et pour l'etat florissant de votre Sainte Communauté au renouvellement de cette année. Mad^{elle}. de Givry, si elle est encore chez vous, voudra bien que je la félicite sur le gain du procès de M^r. son pere, dont je n'oublie point les attentions et les bontés, lorsqu'il me crût prêt à their funds would be most needed by them. I would not hesitate, after so many delays and warnings, to take away a power of attorney which he does not employ. The difficulty is to get some one on the spot who could perform the duty, and be Willing to undertake it. Monsieur the Curé of Mesle would seem to me more worthy of Your confidence than any other, Especially If he be known to Monsieur de Villars.

If you charge me with the mission of getting your masses said in part, I will perform it with the greatest faithfulness. If they could be put at 12 sols or 15 sols, which is the rate for country priests, it would be easier; but I hope that I shall find some who, in default of others, will willingly undertake it. I have already made arrangements for 600, and can answer for 2,400 at least. Should you persist in this intention, I will indicate to you a gentleman in Paris who will receive your money and pay it to me here. I take 300 for my share, which I shall endeavor to say during the year. Some of my Colleagues will not need much urging, and it will give them pleasure. As it appears that the same commission will be given you every year, we beg you not to forget us. Here, on a separate piece of paper, is my acquittance for the 2,400 masses which I accept in advance; but I will negotiate the amount only when I have received the same. I beg you to be assured of my prayers for your preservation, and for the flourishing condition of your Holy Community at the beginning of the new year. Will Mademoiselle de Givry, if she be still with you, allow me to congratulate her upon the winning of his suit by Monsieur her father, whose attentions and kindness

Lettre du Père J. B. de la Brosse à Madame —.

MA CHÈRE FILLE,

Les deux occasions sur les quelles je comptois pour vous faire tenir ma première lettre m'ont manqué, & j'ai été obligé d'attendre celle du bon homme Luinau, je m'étois même déterminé à descendre avec lui, & vous pouvez penser que j'aurois été bien flatté de vous voir, quand ce n'auroit été que pour peu de tems, sur tout si j'avois pu espérer de contribuer à votre rétablissement, ou à votre foulagement; mais l'embarras de la voiture, & la crainte dans un tems de travaux de ne pas trouver d'occasions pour remonter m'a arrêté. C'est vers le quinze de l'autre mois que le commis des sept isles doit m'envoier chercher, si l'hivernement à la pointe des monts a lieu, il est vrai que M^r. Stuart m'a mandé que bien peu de familles se présentoient, mais n'importe je suis lié par ma parole jusqu'à ce que je n'aye plus lieu d'y aller. M. Stuart me dit aussi dans sa lettre que M^r. Letter of Father J. B. de la Brosse to Madame ———.

MY DEAR DAUGHTER,
I have been disappointed on two occasions when I hoped to send you my first letter, and was compelled to await the departure of the peasant Luinau. I had even decided to go down with him, and you may imagine how pleased I would have been to see you, even if only for a short time—especially if I could have hoped to contribute to your recovery or relief. But the difficulty of procuring a vehicle, and my fear that I might be unable to find, in the busy season, an opportunity for returning, deterred me. The agent at sept isles is to send for me about the fifteenth of next month, if the savages winter at la pointe des monts. It is true, Monsieur Stuart has written to me that very few families have presented themselves; nevertheless, I am bound by my promise until it is no longer necessary for me to go there. Monsieur Stuart also tells me in his letter that Monsieur Lepage assured him that I would pass the winter at Rimouski; and, in consequence of that information, he seems to fear that next spring I shall return even later. But these fears are groundless, for I have made no such promise, even to you, to whom I would refuse nothing. You know, however, what trouble and inconvenience would be Caused by a second winter passed as the first was, and how little reliance can be placed on combien peu il y a à se fier à la parole d'une multitude peu fidèle à la garder. Il est bien vrai que pour Baptiste votre fils il feroit à bien des égards plus avantageux de ne pas hiverner loin de vous, mais je ne crois pas que M^r. Lepage ait eu le consentement de Monseigneur l'Évêque pour cet hivernement, car si cela étoit, il m'auroit parlé, ou du moins m'auroit écrit à ce fujet: parce que s'il me falloit hiverner à Rimoufki ne pouvant hiverner dans la maison du domaine, il m'auroit fallu prendre bien des précautions, et de mesures, pour hiverner dans une autre maison, éloignée des autres.

À l'égard de votre fils Baptiste, s'il a toujours les mêmes sentimens, et beaucoup de bonne volonté de servir dieu, de travailler à son salut & à celui des autres, comme il y a peu d'apparence que je descende à la pointe des monts, & que je le prenne en passant, il fera bien de se rendre ici le plutôt qu'il pourra, j'ai fait venir pour lui une grammaire latine & je souhaite qu'il en fasse un bon usage: il vaudroit mieux ne rien entreprendre, que de relâcher, car ce feroit perdre du tems, offenser dieu, & se rendre la risée du public. Une des raisons qui m'auroit encore porté à descendre maintenant, auroit été de lui faire faire toutes ces reflexions, & bien d'autres en votre présence, mais enfin ce n'est plus un enfant, il doit avoir de la raison, & s'en servir, sur tout dans le choix d'un état de vie où il s'agit de son bonheur même pour cette vie, et ce qui est encore plus important pour l'autre.

Si cependant il y avoit apparence d'hiverner à Rimoufki, alors s'il vous étoit utile il pourroit rester, the word of a multitude who are not very faithful in keeping it. It is quite true, as regards your son Baptiste, that it would be, in many respects, more advantageous for him to spend the winter not far from you; but I do not believe that Monsieur Lepage has obtained Monseigneur the Bishop's consent for that wintering; for, in that case, he would have spoken, or at least have written, to me on the subject—because, if I had to pass the winter at Rimouski, as I could not do so in the house of the domain, I would have been compelled to take many precautions, and adopt measures for wintering in another house, far from other dwellings.

With regard to your son Baptiste,—if he continue in the same feelings, and is animated with great willingness to serve God and to labor for his own salvation and for that of others,—as there is no likelihood of my going down to la pointe des monts and taking him on the way, he would do well to come here as soon as possible. I have sent for a latin grammar for him, and I trust that he will make good use of it. It would be better to undertake nothing than to be remiss; for to do so would entail loss of time, would offend God, and make oneself a public laughing-stock. One of the reasons that would also have induced me to go down at this time was, that I might lead him to make these reflections, and many others, in your presence. But, after all, he is no longer a child; he must have reason and know how to use it, especially in the choice of a calling,—in which his happiness, even in this world, is involved, and which is still more important as regards the next.

Should, however, there be any probability of my

Je vous prie de faluer pour moi toute votre famille en y comprenant Julien, et n'oubliant pas la pauvre Thérèse, à qui je recommande non pas de se souvenir de moi, mais de sa lecture, & des avertissements que je lui ai donnés, tant de fois même en votre présence; Je pense bien que si tout dépendoit de vous et d'elle que j'aurois bientôt tout ce qu'il faudroit pour hiverner près de vous. Je prie dieu qu'il vous accorde une bonne fanté, & qu'il vous la conserve heureuse, & je suis avec bien de l'attachement, et de la reconnoissance

Ma chère Fille,

Les deux occasions sur lesquelles je comptois pour vous faire tenir ma première lettre m'ont manqué, & j'ai été obligé d'attendre celle du bon homme Luinau, je m'étois même déterminé à descendre avec lui, & vous pouvez penser que j'aurois été bien flatté de vous voir, quand ce n'auroit été que pour peu de tems, sur tout si j'avois pu espérer de contribuer à votre rétablissement, ou à votre soulagement; mais l'embarras de la voiture, & la crainte dans un tems de travaux de ne pas trouver d'occasions pour remonter m'a arrêté. C'est vers le quinze de l'autre mois que le commis des Sept Isles doit m'envoyer chercher, si l'hivernement à la pointe des monts a lieu, il est vrai que M.^r Stuart m'a mandé que bien peu de familles se présenteroient, mais n'importe je suis lié par ma parole jusqu'à ce que j'en aye plus lieu d'y aller. I beg you to present my respects to all your family, including Julien, and not forgetting poor Thérèse—whom I recommend to remember, not me, but her reading, and the advice that I so often gave her even in your presence. I am quite sure that, if all depended on you and her, I would soon have everything needed for passing the winter near you. I entreat God to grant you good health, and to preserve you in it; and I remain, with much attachment and gratitude,

The resident Censitaires, the dependents of the said Arriere-Fief, will be hereinafter enumerated in their Place. It is to be Observed that isle aux Ruaux, Situate in the River St. Lawrence, which was conceded to the said Reverend Fathers as a Fief and Seigniory,—comprised in the letters-Patent of His most Christian Majesty dated the Twentieth of March, One Thousand Six Hundred and sixty-eight,—is a dependency of the said Fief and Seigniory of Notre Dame des Anges, and a dependency of the Seigniorial Manor; that they conceded it to the Late Monsieur Maitre Guillemin, heretofore Councilor in the Superior Council of New France, for and in Consideration of a rent of Fifteen livres and a Cens of two Deniers; that the said Island has changed Hands, etc., and they do not know The present Possessor, as they have not been paid by him, and, since the Conquest, have received no dues of lods et Ventes at the various changes of ownership. SECOND. The Fief and Seigniory of St. Gabriel, commonly known Under the Names of ancienne and Jeune Lorette, containing a League and a half in front By ten in depth, given to the said Reverend fathers by Robert Giffart, Esquire, Seignior of Beauport, and Dame Marie Renouard, His Wife, by deed of gift Inter Vivos passed before Paul Vachon, Notary, at Quebec, on the second of November, One Thousand Six Hundred and Sixty-Seven, and, by error, dated the eleventh of the said Month in the Letters of ment aux dites Lettres d'amortissement, il faut observer que le dit Giffart obtint de la Compagnie de la Nouvelle France, un premier titre de Concession en date du Seize Avril Mil Six Cent quarrante sept de deux lieues de Terre En la Nouvelle France à prendre en Mêmes Endroits de Sa première Concession, En renegeant icelle ou de proche en proche autant qu'il Se pourrait Faire Sur dix Lieues de profondeur, dans les terres vers le Nord-Ouest, pour en jouir par lui en toute propriété, Justice et Seigneurie et tenir les choses Sus-dites à Foy et hommage que lui, Ses Successeurs ou ayans Cause Seront tenus de porter au Fort St Louis à Quebec conformément à la Coûtume de la Prevôté et Vicompté de Paris et à la charge que les appellations des Juges qu'il pouroit y établir, refsortiront nûement au Parlement ou Cour Souveraine qui Sera cy après Erigée au nom de la dite Compagnie à Quebec ou ailleurs: Mais qu'attendu que le dit Giffart n'a pû Jouir du Contenu en la dite première Concession, parcequ'il Se trouvoit borné d'un Coté aux terres Concédées aux dits Reverends peres et d'autre Coté à celles concedées à la Compagnie de Beaupré, il pria la dite Compagnie à fin que la dite première concession ne lui fut inutile, de la transmetre et accorder en autre endroit encor non Concedé, Soit au Nord, Soit au Sud, en consequence de quoi il en obtint un Second titre de Concession en date du Quinze May au dit An Mil Six Cent quarante Sept de la même quantité de terre exprimée par la dite premiere Concession à prendre de proche et en lieux non Conmortmain. But, in order to understand the said league and a half of frontage as above set forth according to the said Letters of mortmain, it should be observed that the said Giffart obtained from the Company of New France a first Concession deed, dated the Sixteenth of April, One Thousand Six Hundred and forty-seven, of two leagues of Land In New France, to be taken at the Same Place as His first Concession, ranging gradually beside the same as much as possible To a depth of ten Leagues, in the interior, toward the Northwest; to enjoy the same himself in full ownership, Justice, and Seigniority, and to hold the Same by Fealty and homage, which he, His Successors or Assigns, Should be bound to tender at Fort St. Louis at Quebec, in accordance with the Custom of the Prevôté and Vicompté of Paris,¹⁶ and subject to the condition that the appeals from the Judges whom he might appoint there should lie immediately to the Parliament, or to the Sovereign Court that Should hereafter be Erected in the name of the said Company at Quebec or elsewhere. But inasmuch as the said Giffart was unable to Enjoy the Contents of the said first Concession because he was bounded on one Side by the lands Conceded to the said Reverend fathers and on the other Side by those conceded to the Company of Beaupré, he begged the said Company, in order that the said first concession might not be useless to him, to transfer and grant it in another place not yet Conceded, Either to the North Or to the South. In consequence thereof, he obtained from the company a Second deed of Concession, dated the Fifteenth of May in the said Year One Thousand Six Hundred and forty-Seven, of cedés, Soit au Nord Soit au Sud, ainsi qu'elle Seroit designée par Monsieur de Montmagny, lors Gouverneur en la Nouvelle France et que par la dite donation entre Vifs du dit Giffart et Son Epouse, Etant ensuite du dit premier Titre de Concession, ils n'ont donné aux dits Reverends Peres que la dite lieue et demie cy dessus dans les dites deux Lieues de front, le dit Giffard et Son Epouse ayant reservé la demie lieue de Surplus comme l'ayant donné et Concedée aux Dames Religieuses de L'Hotel Dieu de Quebec, laquelle lieue et demie de terre de front Sur dix lieues de profondeur, compose aujourd'hui le dit Fief et Seigneurie St Gabriel Situé dans les Terres à une lieue et demie du Fleuve qui est le bout de la profondeur du fief et Seigneurie de Silleri appartenant aux dits Reverends peres; tenant le dit fief et Seigneurie St Gabriel du Coté du Nord Est aux Dames Religieuses de L'Hotel Dieu, à Cause de la dite demie lieue à Elles donnée par le dit Giffard et Son Epouse, qui relève quant à la Justice du dit Fief St Gabriel, comme en ayant été demembré, par le dit Giffard, et du Coté du Sud-ouest au Fief et Seigneurie de Champigny appartenant aux héritiers Peuvret, représenté par le Sieur Duchesnay Sur lequel Fief et Seigneurie les dits Reverends peres ont un Domaine de quatre ou cinq arpens environ en Superficie et deux Eglises dédiées à Notre Dame de Lorette ainsi que deux presbitères, construits Sur des Terreins chacun de trois arpens de Superficie à L'usage des Curés. TERTIO. Le Fief et Seigneurie de Belair, autrement la Montagne à Bonhomme, the same extent of land set forth in the said first Concession, to be taken close by and in places not yet Conceded, Either to the North or to the South, as might Be indicated by Monsieur de Montmagny, then Governor of New France; and by the said deed of gift inter Vivos by the said Giffart and His Wife, Being subsequent to the said first Deed of Concession, they gave to the said Reverend Fathers the said league and a half above mentioned out of the said two Leagues of frontage,—the said Giffard and His Wife having reserved the Surplus half-league as having been given and Conceded to the Religious Ladies of The Hotel Dieu of Quebec. The said league and a half of land in front By ten leagues in depth now forms the said Fief and Seigniory of St. Gabriel, Situate Inland at a distance of a league and a half from the River [St. Lawrence], which is the end of the depth of the fief and Seigniory of Silleri, belonging to the said Reverend fathers. The said fief and Seigniory of St. Gabriel adjoins on the Northeast Side the Religious Ladies of The Hotel Dieu, on Account of the said half league given to Them by the said Giffard and His Wife,—which, as regards Justice, is a dependency of the said Fief of St. Gabriel, through having been separated from it by the said Giffard,—and on the Southwest Side the Fief and Seigniory of Champigny, belonging to the heirs Peuvret, represented by the Sieur Duchesnay. On the aforesaid Fief and Seigniory the said Reverend fathers have a Domain of about four or five arpents in Superficies and two Churches dedicated to Our Lady of Lorette as well as two clergy-houses, built On lots of Land each consisting of three arpents in Superficies, for The use of the Curés. THIRD.

MONSIEUR LE PRÉSIDENT,

Je vous fais mes excuses de ce que j'ai tant tardé à répondre à la lettre qu'il vous plut de m'adresser le 26 d'Août dernier.

Si vous jugés indispensable que nous paroissions devant L'honorable Comité, nous nous y siterons le 15 du présent mois, à L'heure prescrite. Mais nous ne pourrons y dire que ce que j'ai L'honneur de vous écrire cy deffous :

1°. Depuis que nous sommes sous la Domination Angloise, nous avons été; nous sommes encore; et nous ferons toujours sujets soumis et fidèles à sa Majesté Britannique. Nous osons nous flatter que les Gouverneurs Anglois, qui ont commandé dans cette province, ne nous refuseroient pas Leurs Certificats de notre fidélité et de notre obéissance.

2°. Il paroît donc que c'est moins de nos personnes, que de nos biens temporels qu'il s'agit en cette circonstance.— Nos biens, ou nos fonds nous sont venus de trois sources différentes: 1°. Les Rois de France nous en ont donné une partie: 2°. Quelques particuliers nous en ont donné une autre partie: Ces dons ont été faits en vue de pourvoir à la subsistance des jésuites Missionnaires employés à l'instruction des sauvages et des Canadiens. Le plus grand nombre d'entre eux n'a cessé de se livrer à ces œuvres de charité, que quand ils ont cessé de vivre; et ceux

MONSIEUR THE PRESIDENT,

I beg you to excuse me for having so long delayed my answer to the letter which you were pleased to write to me on the 26th of August last.

If you consider it indispensable that we should appear before The honorable Committee, we shall do so on the 15th of the present month, at The hour prescribed. But we shall not be able to say there what I have The honor to write you hereunder:

1st. Since we have been under the English Domination, we have been, we are still, and we will always be submissive and faithful subjects of his Britannic Majesty. We venture to flatter ourselves that the English Governors who have commanded in this province would not refuse us Their Certificates of our fidelity and obedience.

2nd. It seems, therefore, that in this instance it is not so much our persons as our temporal properties that are in question. Our properties or real estate have come to us from three different sources: 1st. The Kings of france have given us a portion of them. 2nd. Some individuals have given us another portion. These gifts were made with the view of providing for the subsistence of the jesuit Missionaries employed in instructing the savages and Canadians. The majority of the Fathers ceased

3°. Tous nos Titres de possession, qui sont bien et dûment enregistrés au Greffe de La province, démontrent que tous ces biens ou fonds nous ont toujours appartenu en toute propriété; et nous Les avons toujours régis et administrés comme nos propres, sans contradiction, ni empêchement.

4°. Notre propriété a été bien reconnue dans La Capitulation du Canada signée au camp devant Montréal, Le 8. de septembre 1760; puis-que, par L'article 35^e., Le Lord Amherst nous permettoit de vendre nos biens fonds et mobiliers en tout ou en partie; et d'en passer en France Le produit.

5°. Quoiqu'il en soit, Monsieur, nous sommes entre les mains de sa Majesté qui décidera selon son bon plaisir. Mais des sujets et des enfants irréprochables ne peuvent attendre qu'une traitement [crossed out in MS.] décision favorable de la part d'un Roi aussi bienfaisant, et d'un aussi bon père que L'est sa Majesté Georges III.

Finally, our predecessors have, with Their own Money, purchased The third part of our property.

Lettre du Révérend Père de Glapion à Mr. Ls.
Germain [Langlois], fils.

LA plus grande partie des biens, terres et possessions dont les Jésuites existants en Canada ont joui et jouissent encore, tant en fief et seigneurie qu'en rôturage, leur a été donnée en toute propriété par le Roi de France, le Duc de Vantadour, la Compagnie Commercante du Canada, et par de généreux particuliers, pour la subsistance des dits Jésuites, à condition qu'ils s'employeroient à l'instruction des Sauvages et des jeunes François Canadiens. Les Jésuites se sont si bien acquittés de ces deux obligations, qu'ils ont mérité que Louis XIV. de glorieuse mémoire, renouvella et ratifia en leur faveur par son magnifique diplôme du [blank space in MS.] toutes ces concessions et tous ces dons à eux faits. Quelques autres portions de biens ont été achetées par les anciens Jésuites, de leurs propres deniers, et ces achats ont été approuvés par le diplôme susdit; mais en Octobre, 1789, les Jésuites existants en Canada sont réduits au nombre de quatre, et tous d'un âge avancé. Par conséquent, ils ne sont plus en état d'acquitter par eux-mêmes les obligations stipulées, d'instruire les Sauvages et les jeunes Canadiens. C'est pourquoi ils renoncent purement, simplement, volontairement et de bonne foi à toute propriété et possession des dits dons et des dites concessions à eux ci-devant faits et faites,

Letter of Reverend Father de Glapion to Monsieur Louis Germain [Langlois], fil.

THE greater part of the property, estates, and possessions which have been, or still are, held by the Jesuits living in Canada, whether in fief and seigniorship or en rôtture, were given to them in full proprietorship by the King of France, the Duke de Vantadour, the Trading Company of Canada, and by generous individuals, for the maintenance of the said Jesuits, on the condition that they should be employed for the instruction of the Savages and of the young Canadian French. The Jesuits so well acquitted themselves of both these obligations that, in acknowledgment of their merits, Louis XIV., of glorious memory, renewed and ratified in their favor, by his great charter of [blank space in MS.] all those concessions and gifts which had been made to them. Some other pieces of property had been bought by the early Jesuits, with their own funds, and those purchases were approved by the charter aforesaid; but in October, 1789, the number of Jesuits living in Canada was reduced to four, all of them advanced in years. Consequently, they were no longer able to fulfill the stipulated obligations to instruct the Savages and the young Canadians. For this reason, they renounce, unconditionally, voluntarily, and in good faith, all ownership and possession of the said gifts and concessions granted to them up to this time, and yield and et en cédent et transmettent la propriété et possession aux Citoyens Canadiens, en faveur desquels elles ont été faites, afin que sous la direction et l'autorité, et de l'approbation de Monseigneur Jean François Xavier Hubert, Illustrissime et Révérendissime, Evêque de Québec, et de ses successeurs Evêques, il soit pourvû à l'instruction des Sauvages du Canada, et des jeunes Canadiens.

Cette démission, renonciation et transport de propriété faite au profit des citoyens Canadiens et de la Province du Canada, aux clauses et conditions suivantes:

1. Que les Jésuites résidens à Québec jouiront, jusqu'à la mort du dernier d'eux, du bâtiment qu'ils occupent, dont la vue est sur leur jardin d'en haut, et qui fait face au sud; qu'ils jouiront du dit jardin d'en haut, et du bosquet ou bocage qui est au bout du dit jardin vers le nord-ouest; qu'ils jouiront de leur hangard, écuries, glacière, basse-cour, buandrie, puits et bucher: qu'ils jouiront de leur bibliothèque, des meubles qui sont dans leurs chambres et dans tout le bâtiment qu'ils se réservent; qu'ils jouiront de leur Eglise, de leur Sacristie, et de tous les meubles et ornemens qui sont dans les dites Eglise et Sacristie; de leur vestibule, et de la Congrégation où les citoyens congréganistes s'assemblent au moins une fois par semaine avec l'edification du public, . . . que les dits Jésuites résidens à Québec, continueront à recevoir tous les ans une certaine quantité de foin qui leur est due en vertu d'un contrat passé entre eux et le Sieur Jean Baptiste Normand, demeurant près du passage de la Rivière St. Charles.

transfer the ownership and possession of these to the Canadian Citizens, in whose behalf those grants had been made—in order that under the direction and authority and with the approbation of Monseigneur Jean François Xavier Hubert, most Illustrious and Reverend Bishop of Quebec, and of the Bishops his successors, provision may be made for the instruction of the Savages of Canada, and of the young Canadians.

This surrender, renunciation, and transfer of ownership for the benefit of Canadian citizens, and of the Province of Canada, is made with the following provisos and conditions:

1. That the Jesuits resident at Quebec shall possess, until the death of the last of their number, the building which they occupy, which affords a view over their upper garden, and which faces the south; that they shall possess the said upper garden, and the grove or thicket which is at the northwest end of said garden; that they shall retain possession of their cart-house, stables, ice-house, poultry-yard, laundry, well, and wood-house. They shall also enjoy the use of their library, and of the articles of furniture which are in their own rooms and in the entire building, which they reserve for themselves. They shall retain possession of their Church, of their Sacristy, and of all the furniture and ornaments which are in the said Church and Sacristy; of their entrance-hall, and of the hall of the Congregation, where the citizens who are members of that body hold assemblies at least once a week, to the edification of the public.²⁴ . . . And the said Jesuits resident at Quebec shall continue to receive, every year, a certain quantity of hay which is their due by virtue of a contract entered into between them

Seconde condition — Que le Père Etienne Thomas de Villeneuve Girault, Missionnaire des Hurons de la Nouvelle Lorette, jouira pendant toute sa vie de son Eglise et Sacristie, et de tous les meubles et ornemens qui y sont; qu'il jouira de tous les bâtimens et de tous les meubles et ustenciles, du jardin, de la cour, et de toutes les prairies dont il a joui jusqu'à ce jour; que le dit Père Girault aura droit pendant toute sa vie, et sans payer, au moulin de la Nouvelle Lorette, le bled dont il aura besoin pour sa subsistance et celle de ses domestiques.

Troisième condition — Que le Père Bernard Well continuera pendant toute sa vie à jouir de la Chapelle et Sacristie, et des ornemens et meubles qui y sont, et des bâtimens, jardins et cours dont il a joui jusqu'à ce jour dans la ville de Montréal.

Quatrième condition — Que Messieurs les Citoyens Canadiens payeront tous les ans à chacun des quatre Jésuites qui vivent encore, une pension viagère de trois mille livres au taux de la Province; laquelle pension sera payée en deux termes, c'est-à-dire: qu'ils payeront à chacun des quatre Jésuites quinze cens livres tous les six mois; et la dite pension cessera d'être payée pour chacun d'eux au décès de chacun d'eux.

Québec, 31^e. Décembre, 1789.

Monsieur,

J'ai oublie de prévenir Messieurs les Citoyens Canadiens que notre résidence de Montréal est chargée d'un constitut de 20000 livres au capital, en conséquence duquel les Pères Floquet et Well ont and Sieur Jean Baptiste Normand, who lives near the ferry over the River St. Charles.

Second condition: That Father Etienne Thomas de Villeneuve Girault, Missionary to the Hurons of New Lorette, shall during his entire life retain possession of his Church and Sacristy, and of all the furniture and ornaments which are therein; that he shall enjoy the use of all the buildings, of all the furniture and utensils, of the garden and court, and of all the meadows, of which he has hitherto had the use; and that the said Father Girault shall during all his life be entitled to receive, without payment, at the mill of New Lorette, whatever grain he shall need for his own maintenance and that of his servants.

Third condition: That Father Bernard Well shall continue, during his entire life, to enjoy possession of the Chapel and Sacristy, of the ornaments and furniture which are therein, and of the buildings, gardens, and courts of which he has had possession up to the present time in the town of Montreal.

Fourth condition: That Messieurs the Canadian Citizens shall pay annually, to each of the four Jesuits who are still living, a life-pension of three thousand livres, at the rates current in the Province. This pension shall be paid in two installments: that is, the Citizens shall pay to each of the four Jesuits fifteen hundred livres every six months; and the said pension shall cease to be paid for each of them at the decease of each.

Quebec, December 31, 1789.

Monsieur:

I had forgotten to notify Messieurs the Canadian Citizens that our Montreal residence is charged with a payé, depuis bien des années, à Monsieur Panet, Juge à Québec, la rente annuelle de 1000 livres.— Je vous prie de le leur dire, et vous obligerez votre serviteur, constituted rent on 20,000 livres of capital, in consequence of which Fathers Floquet and Well have, for several years past, made to Monsieur Panet, Judge at Quebec, an annual payment of 1,000 livres.²⁵ I request that you will inform them of this, and oblige your servant,

M^R MARCHAND

Mon^r & bon ami

Je veux que vous soyez encore mon débiteur, et c'est pour cela que je vous écris aujourd'hui, soit par Madame Keller ou par Madame Vigé; car on dit qu'elles partent demain l'une & l'autre.

On désire le pere Casot à Montréal, et sa présence y seroit peut-être nécessaire. il est pleinement informé du singulier état de son confrère. Mais il craint de ne pas gagner plus que les autres sur lui, ni pour le temporel, ni pour le spirituel. Qu'irai-je faire là, dit-il? Je ne disposerai de rien avant sa mort pour ne pas l'affliger, et il est possible qu'il soit encore longtemps à mourir. Je n'aurai pas le loisir de l'attendre. Mes occupations d'ici me presseront de revenir, et rien ne sera fait. Si je savois qu'il fût mort, je monteroie incessamment et il ne me faudroit pas plus de deux jours pour régler tout. Voilà ce que le Père Casot me dit hier pour la seconde fois. Néanmoins il montera peut-être. il avoit même fixé son départ à demain; mais il est revenu sur ce projet. Au reste, videbitur infra. Casot qui n'est pas sot, a peut-être de bonnes raisons pour ne se point éloigner de son poste. Vous savez que le

Letter of Monsieur Joseph O. Plessis to Monsieur ——— Marchand, Principal of the College at Montreal.

QUEBEC, March 13, 1791.

MONSIEUR MARCHAND:

Sir and good friend,

I wish you still to be my debtor, and hence I write you to-day, through either Madame Keller or Madame Vigé, for it is said that they both depart to-morrow.

Father Casot is desired at Montreal, and his presence might, perhaps, be necessary there. He is fully informed of the peculiar condition of his confrère; but he fears that he will not gain any more from him than do others, as to either the temporal or the spiritual. "What shall I undertake to do there?" he says. "I will dispose of nothing before his death, in order not to grieve him; and it is possible that it may be yet a long time before he dies. I shall not have leisure to wait for that event; my occupations here will urge me to return, and nothing will be done. If I knew that he were dead, I would go up there without delay; and I would not need more than two days to settle all his affairs." That is what Father Casot told me yesterday, for the second time. Nevertheless, he may go up. He had even fixed upon his departure for to-morrow, but he has changed his mind about that. For the rest,

P. Girault voyage un peu dans les espaces imaginaires (si vous n'en savez rien, ne dites pas que Je vous l'ai appris) et l'absence du P. Casot seulement pendant 15 jours pourroit donner occasion à quelqu'un de tracasser. Les circonstances présentes sont très délicates pour lui, car il faut le regarder comme le seul Jésuite vivant.

A propos de Jésuites, la neuvaine vient de finir. Elle a été aussi solennelle que de coutume. J'y ai prêché trois beaux sermons pour ma part, Mr Gravé deux, Mr Robert et Mr Pâquet chacun un. Le curé a fait la clôture. Le concours des confessions a été immense. Aujourd'hui Monseigneur a prêché à la Cathédrale un beau et bon sermon sur le jeûne. Rien ne plaît tant au peuple que de l'entendre.

J'ai remis une portugaise à la mère S^{te} Ursule. Je vous tiendrai quitte si vous voulez vous charger de 40 messes pour défunte Madeleine Blouin veuve de Joseph Dion, de la S^{te} Famille, isle d'Orléans. J'attendrai une réponse de vous sur cet article, avant de m'en croire déchargé. Faites-moi la promptement. Il n'y a pas longtemps que j'ai envoyé 720 messes à Mr Guillimin pour le Séminaire. On dit que vos vicaires en manquent. Je pourrois facilement leur en procurer environ 150 qui me sont survenues depuis peu. Parlez en à Mr Courval en faisant audit S^r Courval mes complimens très sincères, car je l'aime, oui, surtout quand il prêche en conversation, ce qui n'est pas rare — Mes complimens à mon S^r Archambault — nos tonsurés, excepté Augustin Germain qui est malade en Ville et qui veut quitter, dit-on, seront minorés me[r]credi prochain, il n'y a point d'autres ordres. — L'abbé Parent a laissé la videbitur infra. Casot, who is not a fool, has perhaps good reasons for not absenting himself from his post. You know that Father Girault travels a little in imaginary space (if you did not know that, do not say that I told you); and the absence of Father Casot, during even a fortnight only, might give some one opportunity to meddle. The present circumstances are very delicate for him, for he must be regarded as the only living Jesuit.²⁶

Apropos of the Jesuits, the novena is just finished. It has been as solemn as usual. I preached three fine sermons therein, for my part; Monsieur Gravé two, and Monsieur Robert and Monsieur Pâquet each one. The curé officiated at its close. The crowds at confession were immense. To-day Monseigneur preached in the Cathedral an eloquent and strong sermon upon fasting. Nothing so pleases the people as to hear him.

I have remitted a portuguese²⁷ to mother Ste. Ursule. I shall release you from all obligation, if you will take upon yourself the 40 masses for the late Madeleine Blouin, widow of Joseph Dion, of Sainte Famille, isle of Orléans. I shall await an answer from you upon this matter before considering myself freed from it. Do it for me promptly.

Not long ago I sent 720 masses to Monsieur Guilimin for the Seminary. They say that your vicars are in need of some. I could easily procure them about 150, which happened to come to me a little while ago. Speak of them to Monsieur Courval, while offering to the said Sieur Courval my very sincere compliments; for I love him, — yea, above all when he preaches in conversation, which is not seldom. My compliments to Monsieur Archambault.

soutane en arrivant ici. Je le vois souvent dans l'Eglise avec une figure exterminée et qui paroît souffrante. il semble se flatter de trouver grace. On le lui a quasi fait espérer. J'opinerois pour la négative adieu. Silence sur le détail que je vous donnai dans mon avant-dernière, des projets du P. casot. Bien affectueusement.

PLESSIS.

Our tonsured men—excepting Augustin Germain, who is sick in Town and who, it is said, intends to quit us—will receive minor orders next wednesday. There are no other orders. Abbé Parent discarded his cassock upon arriving here. I see him often in the Church, with a haggard and apparently suffering face. He seems to flatter himself that he will find grace, and he has almost been led to expect it; but I would give my opinion in the negative. Adieu. Silence regarding the particulars that I gave you in my previous letter about the plans of Father casot. Very affectionately,

PLESSIS.

Catalogue of Jesuit Missionaries to New France and Louisiana, 1611-1800.

BY ARTHUR EDWARD JONES, S.J.

PREFATORY NOTICE.

This Catalogue of the old Jesuit missionaries, who were sent out to New France or to Louisiana, is far from perfect, but there is every reason to believe that as a recension it is complete. The names of all those who set foot on the soil of Canada or who perished on the way figure in the list. This may be confidently asserted; for, seeing that the ground has been gone over so carefully and so repeatedly, it is morally certain that no one has escaped notice. Quite as much time and as much labor, possibly more, have been expended on the fixing of dates; but endless difficulties are met with in such work, and it is in this particular that the present catalogue falls short of perfection. Many of the existing uncertainties will no doubt be eventually settled, and gaps filled in; but time, much patience, and a voluminous correspondence will be the conditions of success. Had the archives and libraries of the Society not been pillaged and dispersed in 1763, and later and more ruthlessly in 1773, nothing would have been easier than to compile catalogues, not only of the missionaries of New France, but of those throughout the world.

As early as 1843, Reverend Father Felix Martin undertook to gather the scattered fragments of what related to the old Canada mission, and at the same time began a list of missionaries. Shea was indebted to him for the inchoate lists to be found in the appendix to his Catholic Missions (1855); Carayon, for the fuller list which appeared in 1863 in his collection of Documents Inédits, and for a still more complete one, published in 1869 in No. XIII. of the same collection. This number was made up of Allouez's Sentiments, etc., Chaumonot's autobiography, and Jogues's account of René Goupil's death. The compiler, in a few words of preface to the autobiography, gives credit to Father Martin for his share in the work. "The copy," he says, "which we print was taken from this manuscript [mentioned previously as the one preserved in the Hôtel-Dieu, Quebec], and carefully collated by Father Felix Martin, formerly Superior of our Quebec Residence and of our College at Montreal. We are indebted to him also for the notes and appendixes contained in this volume." The list of Jesuit missionaries was classed as an appendix to the work.

One of the last acts of Father Martin, who died in France in 1886, was to send back to Canada this printed list, with one or two additional names, and a few more dates filled in by hand. The letter accompanying the parcel was written from Paris, Aug. 2, 1886.

The list now published embodies the result of fourteen years of further research. Not to speak of many dates supplied and corrected, and places of birth and decease determined, some twenty-three more names have been added to the previous recensions.

As Vimont explains³ on p. 171 of this volume, these captives included many of “the choicest" of the Huron Christians, as well as Father Jogues.

VOLUME XLII.

Pp. 101-111 [chap. vi.]: W. M. Beauchamp writes (in a letter dated Dec. 12, 1896): "Mr. Shea's claim that a belt presented by Chaumonot is still at Onondaga is erroneous. He had never seen the belt, but I have repeatedly and closely examined it; and every circumstance is against his theory. The wampum-keeper calls it a 'belt of admission to the League,' but I doubt the correctness of this statement."

P. 296. Note 12: W. J. McGee regards the Poulak as "the Dakota proper"—they with the Assinipoulak constituting the Dakota-Asiniboin division of the Siouan stock. The separation of the Asiniboin from the main stock must have occurred early in the seventeenth century. See his "Siouan Indians," in U. S. Bur. Ethnol. Rep., 1893-94, pp. 160-161, 189-191.

VOLUME XLVII.

Paragraph 5 (Du Luth): for "of the Reformed faith," read "a reduced captain." At end of same paragraph: add "See Sulte's sketch of him in Rev. Canad., 1893, pp. 480-489, 541-550."

P. 275. Note 16, line 1: for "1677," read "1676." At end of same note: add "See Bull. Rech. Hist., vol. vi., pp. 147, 220."

VOLUME LXIII.

P. 244. End of document: In the archives of the Ursuline monastery at Quebec is a MS. entitled "Narré de la mission du Sault," and endorsed "Envoié en 1685." It may be the part of this document which is lacking.

P. 296. Doc. clvii.: the "Montagnais MS.," as it is generally known to scholars, contains, besides the writings of Crépieu here mentioned, a sermon, etc., by Father J. B. Maurice; also writings by Proc.*, 1895, sec. 1, p. 87 et seq. This writer has made a special study of the Abbadie family (to which St. Castin belonged), and cites much new and hitherto unpublished material regarding the subject. He thinks that St. Castin was born about 1652, and died probably in 1715 or 1716.

P. 279. Note 27: in various Old-French dictionaries may be found the words pasnage, tournage, and brenage (for barnage, basnage), which indicate various seigniorial dues. The last-named is sometimes applied to the amount of grain, etc., due for the support of the church, and even to a formulated statement of dues for church or monastery. Thanks for information thereon are due to the French department of the University of Wisconsin. Father Jones writes: "The word basnage is probably a local term, now obsolete, from ban, 'a proclamation, or announcement;' and, as the impending feasts were announced at the beginning of the sermon, I presume that the petit discours was a brief address on the feasts, or on the mysteries of our Lord's life. Although the word is not to be found in any dictionary, all here [Montreal] agree with me in this interpretation."

VOLUME LXV.

P. 188. Title of document: for "Louis Hector de Callières," read "Jean Bochart de Champigny." This correction is made from information kindly furnished Nov. 8, 1900, by Abbé A. H. Gosselin, the Canadian historian. He notes that Carheil mentions (pp. 249, 251) the wife and children of his correspondent, and the appointment of the latter to the position of intendant at Havre—circumstances which apply to Champigny, and not to Callières, who was not married, and who died at Quebec in 1703.

VOLUME LXVI.

P. 203. Lines 7–10 from end: the Jesuit missions to the Onondagas and Senecas were abandoned in 1709. Two years later, a French expedition built a blockhouse at Onondaga, and had "other wood ready to build a chapel" (N. Y. Colon. Docs., vol. v., p. 249; see also vol. ix., pp. 829, 836, 838.)

VOLUME LXVII.

P. 332. Line 5: for "1710," read "1712."

P. 335. Note 15: for "1718–24," read "1718–26." Note 20: the culture of the sugar-cane and that of the orange-tree were introduced into Louisiana (about 1744) by the Jesuits.—Shea's Church in Colon. Days, p. 581; Wallace's Ill. and Louisiana, p. 297.

P. 337. Note 23: see preceding citation in reference to St. Castin (under vol. lxiii., p. 299), for further information as to his son Anselm.

VOLUME LXIX.

P. 291. Line 1: insert after period, "(See map Domaine du Roy, in Rochemonteix's Jésuites, at end of vol. iii.)"

P. 295. Note 32: on the site of La Presentation has been erected (1899) a monument to Picquet. The corner-stone of the old fort is fixed in the walls of the new town hall at Ogdensburg; and the flag of the mission and a portrait of Picquet are preserved at Quebec. — E. C. JAMES, Ogdensburg.

VOLUME LXX.

P. 314. End of paragraph: add, "See list of 'Arrêts de la Cour du Parlement de Rouen contre les Jésuites,' (1762-67), in Frère's Bibliog. Normande, pp. 33-36."

VOLUME LXXI.

P. 49. Line 5 from end: for note number "3" read "11."

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL DATA: VOL. LXXI

CCXXIX—CCXXXI, CCXXXIII

The original MSS. rest in the archives of the Ursuline monastery at Quebec. An English translation of Doc. CCXXIX. was published in American Catholic Historical Researches, vol. v., p. 35.

CCXXXII

The original MS. of this letter of Father Sébastien Meurin to Bishop Briand, of Quebec, written from Kaskaskia June 11, 1768, is in the archiepiscopal archives of Quebec.

CCXXXIV

This is a letter from Jean Baptiste de la Brosse, S.J., to a Canadian lady whose son was his pupil, dated at Isle Verte, September 23, 1776. The original MS. fell into the hands of Rev. Marc Chauvin, parish priest at Baie St. Paul. Father Chauvin was appointed vicar-general of the diocese of Quebec, and was succeeded in his parish by Rev. Charles Trudelle, who later became chaplain to the hospital of the Sacré Cœur at Quebec. About 1856, when Chauvin retired to the Hôtel-Dieu at Quebec, he gave this letter of La Brosse to Trudelle, who (February 6, 1891) presented it to Rev. Edouard Désy, S.J., then superior of the Quebec residence of the order: and, on February 11, Father Désy gave it to the archives of St. Mary's College, Montreal, where it now rests. The letter was published in L'Union Libérale, of Quebec, November 23, 1888. In our publication, we follow the original MS.

Father Joseph Casot's Aveu et Denombrement des Terrains des Pères Jésuites en Canada, was begun December 12, 1781, concluded in 1788, and authenticated in 1789. We follow the original MS., now resting in the Crown Lands office, Quebec.

CCXXXVI

This letter of Augustin L. de Glapion, S.J., to Hugh Finlay, of the legislative council, dated at Quebec, September 10, 1788, was, on March 19, 1888, published in facsimile by Rev. Arthur E. Jones, S.J., archivist of St. Mary's College, Montreal. The original MS., which we follow, rests in the college archives.

CCXXXVII

We obtain this letter of Father Glapion to Louis Germain Langlois, fils, dated at Quebec, December 31, 1789, from the appendix (pp. 163, 164) to Rapport du Comité Spécial de la Chambre d'Assemblée du Bas-Canada, nommé pour s'enquérir de l'état actuel de l'Éducation dans la Province du Bas-Canada. The report was ordered printed, February 2, 1824.

CCXXXVIII

The original MS. of this letter by Joseph Octave Plessis—then secretary to Monsignor Hubert, coadjutor bishop of Quebec; but afterward (1806–25) himself bishop of that diocese—addressed to Monsieur Marchand, principal of the college at Montreal, and dated at Quebec, March 13, 1791, rests in the archives of St. Mary's College, Montreal. It was found among the papers of Marchand, at Sandwich, and transmitted to the Jesuits for safe-keeping. In publishing this final document in our series, we follow the original at St. Mary's.

NOTES TO VOL. LXXI

(Figures in parentheses, following number of note, refer to pages of English text.)

1 (p. 25).—Reference is here made to two British officers, then in Canada, James Barbutt and Donald McDonell. The former was a captain in the 15th regiment of foot, under Col. Jeffery Amherst; in 1776 he was commissary of stores and provisions for West Florida, and stationed at Pensacola. McDonell was a captain in the 78th regiment of foot, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Simon Fraser.

2 (p. 27).—Bernard Well was born on Dec. 2, 1724; and, when nearly twenty years of age, entered the Jesuit novitiate. He arrived in Canada in 1757; during the following year, he was chaplain to the General Hospital of Quebec. For several years he labored at Sault St. Louis, but was stationed at Montreal during most of his residence in America. He was the last Jesuit in that town, after the suppression of the order, and died there, as we shall see in later documents, in 1791.

Well's confrère to whom this letter was written was Alain Xavier de Launay; he was born July 21, 1704, and became a Jesuit novice Oct. 20, 1722. In 1756 he was stationed at Paris at the college of Louis-le-grand (formerly Clermont), and acted as procurator for the missions of New France; he probably remained at Paris until the dispersion of the Society, when he was obliged to leave the capital. His subsequent life may be traced, to some extent, by means of his autograph letters in the archives of the Ursuline monastery at Quebec, one of which is given in our text. In 1768 he was at St. Malo; in 1775, at Liege, Belgium; and somewhat later he writes from Huy (a town near Liege), where he had found a refuge with the Augustinian Fathers, who apparently then occupied the former Jesuit college at Huy. The last of these letters is dated at Liege, Dec. 27, 1780; he states therein that he and several other former Jesuits were then residing at the English Academy of Liege. It is probable that he died there in the following year (1781).—A. E. JONES, S. J.

3 (p. 35).—From the very beginning of their missions in Louisiana, the Jesuits had sought, but in vain, to secure ecclesiastical supremacy in that province, which was under the control of the Capuchins after 1725. (See our vol. lxvi., note 9; vol. lxvii., notes 41, 49; and vol. lxx., note 45.) This explains Meurin's dilemma when appointed vicar-general for the bishop of Quebec. To escape persecution by the Capuchins, he left St. Louis and went to Kaskaskia, which after the conquest was, of course, under English rule.

Jean Olivier Briand, seventh bishop of Quebec, was born Jan. 23, 1715, and ordained to the priesthood March 16, 1739. Two years later, he came to Canada as secretary of Bishop Pontbriand (vol. lxix., note 6), until whose death (1760) Briand acted as canon of the Quebec cathedral. The see remained vacant during the six years following the conquest; but in 1766 Briand was appointed to the bishopric, which he held until 1784—resigning then his post on account of his age and infirmities. He remained at Quebec until his death (June 25, 1794), still laboring for the church as long as his strength permitted. As the head of the diocese, he was energetic and able; he secured the rebuilding of the cathedral and the episcopal palace destroyed in the siege of Quebec, and was untiring in his efforts to provide and train priests for the vacant parishes. According to Têtu, Briand was "the second founder of the Bishopric and Seminary of Quebec;" and "at the time of the American invasion of 1775, it was he who, by his loyalty and his authority, kept this colony for England" (Mandements des Évêques, vol. ii., pp. 5, 187).

4 (p. 37).—Amherst was succeeded in 1763 by General Thomas Gage as commander-in-chief of the British troops in North America. This position Gage held until 1774, when he was appointed governor of Massachusetts; but in the following year, proving unequal to the task of quelling the revolt of that colony's people, he was recalled by the home government.

5 (p. 39).—Prairie du Rocher ("Rock Prairie") was founded about 1733, by Jean St. Thérèse Langlois, a nephew of Boisbriant, on a site about five miles east of Old Fort Chartres (vol. lxix., note 56); it is in the present Randolph county, Illinois.—For an account of this village, which still exists, see Wallace's Illinois and Louisiana, pp. 276, 391; and E. G. Mason's "Old Fort Chartres," in Fergus Hist. Series, no. 12, pp. 31, 45.

The allusion in this sentence of the text, rendered obscure by the illegible word in the MS., is made clear by an entry in the parish register of Prairie du Rocher (cited by Mason, in Old Fort Chartres, p. 40). Therein is recorded the removal, from the cemetery near Fort Chartres, of "the bodies of Reverend Fathers Gagnon and Collet, priests of St. Anne of New Chartres" to the cemetery at Prairie du Rocher.

6 (p. 39).—Regarding the sale to Beauvais of the Jesuit estate at Kaskaskia, see vol. lxx., note 46.

7 (p. 41).—In Canadian law the fabrique is the body corporate and politic, consisting of the curé and churchwardens of each parish, who administer the temporalities of the parish church.—CRAWFORD LINDSAY.

8 (p. 43).—Robert Harding, an English Jesuit, came to Maryland in 1732, where he remained until 1749, being then sent to Philadelphia to take charge of the Roman Catholic chapel in that city. In 1763, he built St. Mary's church there, directing it until his death, Sept. 2, 1772; he was then seventy years of age. For many interesting particulars regarding this priest, see Amer. Cath. Hist. Researches, vol. vii. (1890), pp. 82-92.

Concerning the expulsion of the Jesuits, about this time, from various European countries, see our vol. lxx., note 36.

9 (p. 43).—The Illinois country was surrendered to the English on Oct. 10, 1765 (vol. lxx., note 40); the officer appointed to command that region was Captain Thomas Stirling, of the 42nd Highlanders. He was, however, superseded on Dec. 4 following, by Major Robert Farmer, who was in turn followed by Colonel Edward Cole (1766), Colonel John Reed (1768), Lieutenant-Colonel John Wilkins (Sept. 5, 1768), Captain Hugh Lord (1771), and Captain Matthew Johnson (May, 1775 to May, 1781).

10 (p. 47).—In the archives of the archiepiscopal palace at Quebec is a portfolio of correspondence between Bishop Briand and the Jesuit Meurin; it contains thirteen letters besides the one here published by us, ranging in date from March 23, 1767 to April 27, 1777. The authorities of the diocese decline to allow the publication of the others, regarding them as too private and personal in character for that purpose. A short extract from one of them is printed (in English translation) in Amer. Cath. Hist. Researches, vol. iv. (1887), p. 68; the editor says that it was "copied from the original by the late Father Martin."

11 (p. 49).—This was Louis Claude Hector de Villars, minister of war in France from Nov. 26, 1715 to Sept. 24, 1718.

Regarding the suit by Lavalette's creditors, see vol. lxx., note 36.

12 (p. 61).—For sketch of La Brosse, see vol. lxx., note 20. Interesting particulars of his missionary life in the Saguenay and in Acadia may be found in Rapport sur les Missions de Québec, March, 1864, pp. 53-55. The letter here published was evidently written by La Brosse to a lady (probably one of his parishioners) living in the vicinity of Rimouski—a town lying on the south shore of the St. Lawrence, about 180 miles below Quebec. Isle Verte, where the letter was written, seems to have been a favorite residence of the missionary at his times of comparative leisure; it is an island lying off the south shore, opposite the entrance to the Saguenay River. "On this island the first lighthouse on the St. Lawrence was placed, in 1809" (Lovell's Gazetteer).

13 (p. 65).—French legal terms relating to the seigniorial tenure are never translated in Canadian statutes and public documents. Papier-terrier is thus defined by Bescherelle: "A register containing the enumeration of all the lands held by a seignior, and of all the persons holding such lands, with details of the tenures, cens, and rents due therefrom." This is equivalent to the "land-roll" under English tenure.—CRAWFORD LINDSAY.

"Château St. Louis" was the name given to the governor's residence at Quebec; the original edifice was begun by Maisonneuve, in 1647, within the enclosure of the fort. In 1694, it was demolished and rebuilt by Frontenac; but this building was destroyed by fire in 1834. Its historic name was, however, transferred thereafter to the Château Haldimand (an edifice adjoining the fort), which was begun in 1784 by General Haldimand, then governor of Canada. The Château was finally razed to the ground in 1892, and a large hotel known as "Château Frontenac" has been erected, partly on its site and partly on adjoining ground. In one of the hotel façades is placed a stone, found by Haldimand's workmen in 1784, on which is cut a Maltese cross and the figures 1647—evidently a relic of Maisonneuve's original structure.—See Ernest Gagnon's valuable work, Le Fort et le Château Saint-Louis (Quebec, 1895); it is fully illustrated with plans and views (from old engravings and sketches) of the various buildings which have borne that name.

14 (p. 67).—Droit du franc-fief: a phrase thus defined by Bescherelle: "A payment irregularly levied by the seignior upon the roturier proprietors of fiefs;" and, elsewhere, "a tax paid by a roturier when he acquired a fief." He adds: "From the time of Charles V., this tax was due to the king alone."—CRAWFORD LINDSAY.

15 (p. 69).—An arrière-fief is a fief which is a dependency of another fief.

16 (p. 73).—Coutume is the appellation, in French jurisprudence, of "laws which are established by usage, and which are conserved, without being written, by long tradition." Various French provinces had these coutumes, each peculiar to itself; that of Paris was followed in Canada from its first settlement, almost entirely to the exclusion of any other. The coutume of Paris was compiled in 1510, and amended in 1580; the former code is called "the old coutume," the latter, "the new coutume." In 1770, such of its articles as had been followed in Canada up to 1759 were carefully compiled by order of Sir Guy Carleton, then governor, and published (London, 1772); this coutume, with the Ordinance of 1667,—the former for the civil law, and the latter for civil procedure,—remained the fundamental and actual law of Canada until the codification in 1867.—See Edmond Lareau's chapter on this subject in his Droit Canadien, t. i., pp. 138-149.

17 (p. 77).—The former seigniory of Belair (also known, later, as Les Écureuils, now the name of a small village situated therein) was in the present Portneuf county, Que., and lay about thirty miles above the city of Quebec.

18 (p. 87).—Censive: translated "fee-farm" by Clifton and Grimbaud; by Bescherelle, "a tract of land held en roture which is dependent upon a fief." In this case, the holders of land would pay rent to the king.—CRAWFORD LINDSAY.

19 (p. 91).—Cf. details of these concessions, and topographical descriptions of the various estates, in Bouchette's valuable Topog. Dict., art. "Jesuits' estates," and under the separate names of the seigniories: see also a more detailed enumeration in Rapport . . . de l'Éducation, 1824, pp. 105-136.

20 (p. 93).—After the conquest of Canada, that country was ruled by British governors appointed by the crown; the Canadians were treated as a conquered nation, and placed under English law. This condition of affairs was not a satisfactory one, both racial and religious difficulties often arising; but the settlement of Canadian affairs was postponed for several years by the prevailing disturbances in English politics and administration. Finally, the famous "Quebec Act" was passed (June 18, 1774, taking effect in Canada May 1, 1775) by the English Parliament, but not without strong opposition, notably from Chatham and Burke. Most writers regard this bill as an attempt on the part of the English government to conciliate its new Canadian subjects in order to retain their loyalty, in view of the threatened revolt of the neighboring English colonies. Some historians also think that the Quebec Act was (as stated by Coffin, p. 398) "indicative of a settled and long-meditated design on the part of the English government to hinder the extension of the self-governing colonies by attaching the vast unsettled regions West and Southwest to the arbitrary government which that Act seemed to establish." It is generally considered that the measure was largely due to the efforts and influence of Sir Guy Carleton, then governor of Canada. The more important features of the Act were: the extension of the boundaries of Canada southward to the Ohio, westward to the Mississippi, and northward to the Hudson Bay Company's territories; permission to Roman Catholics to enjoy the free exercise of their religion, and to their clergy to receive from the parishes their accustomed dues and rights; the restoration of the old French laws in matters relative to property and civil rights (except in the case of royal land grants); and the appointment of a council who, in conjunction with the British governor, should manage the affairs of the province (but they were not allowed to levy taxes, save for purely local expenditures). Numerous and violent controversies have arisen among historical writers regarding the purpose, nature, and effects of the Quebec Act. For various aspects of the discussion, see Garneau's Canada, t. ii., pp. 417-442; Sulte's Canad.-Fran., t. vii., pp. 126, 129; Kingsford's Canada, vol. v., pp. 220-246; Hart's Quebec Act (Montreal, 1891); and Coffin's "Province of Quebec and the Early American Revolution," in Univ. Wis. Bulletins, Econ. Polit. Sci. and Hist. Ser., vol. i., no. 3, pp. 275-562.

The reference in our text to the provisions of the Act regarding religious houses, is to the opening sentence of Art. viii.: "That all his Majesty's Canadian subjects within the Province of Quebec, the Religious Orders and Communities only excepted, may also hold and enjoy their Property and Possessions, together with all Customs and Usages relative thereto, and all other Civil Rights, in as large, ample, and beneficial Manner, as if the said Proclamation, Commissions, Ordinances, and other Acts and Instruments, had not been made, and as may consist with their allegiance to his Majesty, and subjection to the Crown and Parliament of Great Britain."

21 (p. 93).—A reference to Jacques François Cugnet (son of François Joseph Cugnet, the noted lawyer; vol. lxix., note 18); he was French secretary to the governor, and legal adviser to the crown.

22 (p. 93).—Shortly after the conquest, Lord Amherst obtained from George III. a promise that the estates of the Canadian Jesuits should be given to him as a reward for his military services—a promise, however, which remained in abeyance until after the close of the American Revolution. About 1786, Amherst petitioned the crown for its fulfillment; but the royal council ordered (Aug. 18 of that year) that a commission be appointed at Quebec to investigate the extent, value, and condition of the Jesuits' estates, and the tenures on which they had been held. Minutes of the proceedings of this commission, and their final report, may be found in Rapport . . . de l'Éducation, 1824, pp. 59-162.

The commission failed to agree in their findings—the division apparently ranging the French and the English members upon opposite sides; the main object of their inquiries had been to ascertain whether the estates were, by right of conquest, vested in the crown. In 1799, Amherst secured a grant of the property from the king, but conditionally, depending upon the approval of the governor and the crown lawyers of Canada. This was not given; there was a strong feeling in the province of Canada that the estates belonged to the province rather than to the crown, and that they ought to be applied to the purpose for which they had originally been given, that of education. Governor Milnes steadfastly opposed the grant to Amherst, which consequently fell through; and finally, on the death of Casot, the last Jesuit, the Canadian government took possession of the property. In 1831, the revenues therefrom were, by parliamentary decree, applied solely to educational purposes, being shared between the Protestants and Catholics. When the Dominion of Canada was organized (1867) by the federation of the North American provinces, the estates belonging to the crown, including those of the Jesuits, were transferred to the new federal government; and the latter, in turn, ceded the Jesuit estates (1871) to the Provincial government of Quebec.

Frequent attempts had been made, during the period following the sequestration of the estates, to obtain their restoration to the control of the Catholic church; but these were unsuccessful until 1888, when an act was passed (signed on July 12 of that year) by which a final settlement was made of the entire question. The sum of $400,000 was paid to Pope Leo XIII., as the head of the Roman Catholic church, by the Provincial government, as a partial compensation for the Jesuit property which had been appropriated by the British authorities in 1800; this amount was to be expended within the Province of Quebec. The common of Laprairie was ceded to the Society of Jesus, which had been legally incorporated in Canada in 1887; and the remaining property belonging to the Jesuits' estates was to be disposed of for the benefit of the Province of Quebec. In accordance with this agreement, the Holy See placed the $400,000 in the hands of the Canadian ecclesiastical authorities, to be used for pious purposes—excepting a small part of the sum, which was given to the Canadian Jesuits for the support of their mission in that country.—See the Rapport above cited; Garneau's Canada, t. iii., pp. 62–66, 107, 286; Kingsford's Canada, vol. vii., pp. 286–289; Shea's "Jesuit Estates in Canada," in Amer. Cath. Quart. Rev., vol. xiv., (1889), pp. 322–333; Jesuit Estates Act of July 12, 1888; Fleck's Question des Biens des Jésuites (Montreal, 1889); and the various Reports of the Commissioner of Crown Lands for the Province of Quebec.

23 (p. 99).—The text of this capitulation is given in Kingsford's Canada, vol. iv., pp. 417–433; Sulte's Canad.-Fran., t. vii., pp. 99–107; and (in English translation) in N. Y. Colon. Docs., vol. x., pp. 1107–1120. Art. 35, here cited, reads thus: "If The Canons, Priests, Missionaries, The Priests of the Seminary of Missions Etrangères, Or those of St. Sulpice, as well as the Jesuits and The Récollets, Choose to go To France, passage shall be granted to them upon the Ships of His Britanic Majesty. And all shall have Liberty to Sell, In whole or in part, The property, real Or Personal, which they may possess in the Colony, to either french or English purchasers, without the British Government causing the least hindrance or obstacle to such sale. They may Carry with Them, or ship To france, The Produce, of whatever Nature it may be, of the aforesaid Sale of goods, Paying the freight thereon, As is stated in Article 26. And those Among the Aforesaid Priests who Choose to Go This Year Shall be Fed during The Passage at the expense of His Britanic Majesty, And may Carry with Them their luggage."

24 (p. 103).— See illustration of the old Jesuit college and church at Quebec, in vol. 1. of this series (facing p. 188); and of interior of the church (facing p. 24), in this volume. Fleck, in his Comp. de Jésus au Canada, says (p. 74): "The college of Quebec was unable to continue the classical course after 1768, on account of the small number of Fathers who remained and the notable diminution in the number of pupils after the departure of the wealthy families. The Fathers, however, until 1776 continued to maintain in the college a primary school, where instruction in reading, writing, and arithmetic was given to those who chose to attend it. But these classes were compelled to cease when the government appropriated a part of the college for storing the archives; later, it took, little by little, nearly all the rest of the buildings for use as barracks." Cf. our vol. xlii., note 20. After the death of Father Well (1791), the Jesuit residence at Montreal was used for government purposes. See view of the building in our vol. lxiv., p. 135.

25 (p. 107).— The phrase constituit de 20,000 livres means "a constituted rent the capital of which is 20,000 livres, on which the Fathers pay the annual rent of 1,000 livres."—CRAWFORD LINDSAY.

Pierre René Floquet was born at Paris, Sept. 12, 1716; and entered the Jesuit novitiate at the age of nineteen. He came to Canada in 1744; five years later he was at Sault St. Louis, and in 1752 was stationed at Quebec, but most of his remaining years were spent at Montreal — where he was, from 1757, superior for many years. After the capture of that city by the American troops in 1775, Floquet compromised himself with both the British and the ecclesiastical authorities by his relations with the invaders and (in the following year) with the committee sent by the American Congress to endeavor to persuade the Canadian people to join the colonies in their revolt against Great Britain. In consequence, he was promptly interdicted by Bishop Briand, who was now his ecclesiastical superior; but he made due reparation for his indiscretions, and continued in his priestly duties until his death, which occurred at Quebec, Oct. 18, 1782. A sketch of his life, and English translations of three letters written by him to the bishop, are given in Amer. Cath. Hist. Res., vol. v., pp. 63-68. One of these letters explains at length his relations with the Americans, and the acts for which he had been censured.

Pierre Panet, a native of Paris, and son of a French government official, came to Canada about 1743; he married, at Quebec (1754), Marie Anne Trefflé-Rottot, by whom he had eight children. He was a notary royal, and was in 1778 appointed a judge in the courts of the Quebec district. In 1796 he became a member of the executive council for that province, and in 1799 belonged to the legislative council. The date of his death is not recorded.

26 (p. 111).—"On the death of Father Well, towards the end of March or the beginning of April, 1791, Father Casot came up to Montreal and anticipated the cupidity of the English Government, by giving away in charity every movable possession of the Montreal Jesuits" (Amer. Cath. Hist. Res., vol. v., p. 34). On p. 38 of Researches here cited is reprinted the following extract from the Montreal Gazette, April 7, 1791: "The Reverend Father Casot, procurator of the Jesuits of this province, arrived at the residence in this town shortly after the death of his confrère, Father Well. The noble and generous manner in which he disposed of the money and effects of this house is worthy of the greatest praise and deserves to be recorded in the annals of benevolence. He distributed the corn which he found in quantities of fifty and a hundred bushels to the Hospitals and to other indigent poor; he made surprising gifts in money of two, three, four and even ten thousand francs; in short, he extended a helping hand to those whom shame restrains from making known their wants. His hand is always open to the poor of this class, by whom he was happily beset up to yesterday, which was the day of his departure. Not one person came out from his house without having felt the benefit of his disinterested charity."

Cf. the following extract from the Quebec Gazette, March 20, 1800 (as cited in Christie's Hist. of Canada, vol. i., p. 207), regarding Casot's death: "On Sunday last, the 15th inst., died the reverend father Jean Joseph Casot, priest, of the company of Jesus, procureur of the missions and colleges of the jesuits in Canada, the last of the jesuits of this province. The immense charities which he bestowed assure him for a long time, the blessings of the poor. He was one of those men whose life is a hidden treasure, and his death is a public calamity."

27 (p. 111).—Portugaise is defined in the supplement to Dict. Acad. Fran. as "a gold coin of Hamburg."

Sulte (Canad.-Fran., t. vii., p. 130) mentions one Abbé Parent among Canadian priests in 1775, as ordained in 1757. No information is available which will explain the allusions in the text.

28 (p. 113).—An English translation of the letter here mentioned is published in Researches (as cited in note 26, ante), p. 36. It was written by J. F. Hubert, then bishop of Quebec, and is dated Feb. 28, 1791; it reads as follows: "I learn from different sources that your health is so feeble as to leave no hope for your recovery. Everybody gives you but a short time to live, and you yourself are, they say, the only one who does not perceive your danger. . . . Think, then, I pray you, of that moment of death, so terrible even to the greatest saints. Put your affairs in order, look over your papers, &c., for you cannot doubt that in the event of your death an inventory of everything will be made and possession will be taken. I have not yet heard of your having fulfilled the promise which you made last year; think of it, I beg of you, if it be still unfulfilled. This is my advice to you; my reluctance to offer it is great, but charity and duty impel me to do so. When it shall please God to close your career, I hope you may die the death of the saints. You know how to obtain that favor; make use of your knowledge without delay."

29 (p. 117).—Charles le Moyné (also written Lemoine; a grandson of the noted Montreal pioneer of the same name — vol. xxvii., note 10), second baron de Longueuil, was born Oct. 18, 1687. In 1720 he married Catherine Charlotte le Gouès, by whom he had eighteen children. Like other members of his house, he was a noted military officer; in 1726 he was commandant at Niagara, and later at Montreal — of which city he was governor from 1749 until his death, which occurred there on Jan. 19, 1755. From February to July, 1752, Longueuil acted as governor of Canada, during the interim between the death of La Jonquière and the arrival of Duquesne.

Pierre de Rigault (Rigaud), marquis de Vaudreuil, was born Nov. 22, 1698, and was a son of the Vaudreuil who governed Canada from 1703 to 1725. At the age of thirty-five he married Louise Fleury d'Eschambault, by whom he had five children. In 1733 he was appointed governor of Three Rivers, a post which he held during ten years. He was governor of Louisiana from May, 1743 to February, 1753; at the latter date he went to France, whence he returned in June, 1755, as governor of Canada, holding that dignity until the conquest (1760). Vaudreuil went to France in 1760, and was among those accused and tried with Bigot (vol. lxi., note 27), but was acquitted of guilt. He died in 1764.

30 (p. 118).—The intendant Bégon desired to return to France as early as 1723; but Robert, his successor appointed by the government, died at sea on the voyage to Canada, in the following year; and still another, one Chazel, lost his life by shipwreck off Cape Breton Island, Aug. 25, 1725. For information regarding Bégon's actual successors, see vol. lxvii., note 3; and vol. lxix., notes 26, 27.

31 (p. 122).—In the terminology of the Society of Jesus, the word "province" implies a territorial division, set off for administrative purposes, whose boundaries are not necessarily identical with the national, civil, or ecclesiastical demarcations of a country. The province to which a member of the Order belongs, is determined not by the place of birth, but by the place where, through choice, he entered the Society. Transfers, however, from one province to another are not unusual.

France was constituted as a province in 1552, under Pascale Brœt as its first provincial. In 1564, the Province of Aquitaine, was set off from it, with Edmond Auger as provincial. It comprised, at that date, not only the old historic provinces which ultimately remained under its jurisdiction,—that is to say, Poitou, Marche, Limousin, West Guienne, the western part of Gascony, Bearn, and those other divisions lying between them and the Bay of Biscay,—but also the provinces allotted later on to the jurisdiction of Lyons and Toulouse, and which are enumerated below.

Lyons was cut off from Aquitaine in 1582. Arnold Voisin was its first provincial. This new province was made up of Lyonnais, the southern half of Burgundy, Franche-Comté, Savoy, Dauphiny, Provence, and a small portion of Languedoc enclosing Nimes and Alais.

Toulouse was next severed from Aquitaine, in 1608, and was formed of the western and greater part of Languedoc, all Foix, Roussillon, and Andorre, the eastern part of Gascony, that part of Guienne east of Cahors, and the whole of Auvergne.

Finally, in 1616, Champagne was separated from the Province of Paris, Ignace Armand being its first Provincial. It included within its jurisdiction Champagne, Lorraine, Alsace, small portions of Picardy and of Ile-de-France, and the northern half of Burgundy.

The Province of France, after this final division of 1616, comprised Brittany, Normandy, Maine, Anjou, Touraine, Berry, Bourbonnais, Nivernais, Orleanais, the southern half of Artois, and the larger western portions of both Picardy and Ile-de-France.

The Gallo-Belgian Province, although quite distinct from the five great French Provinces, sent out several able missionaries to New France. It was originally detached from Germany, and assumed its name on becoming a province in 1612. It included within its limits the northern half of Artois, French Flanders, Hainaut, Namur, and Luxemburg.—A. E. JONES, S.J. (Notes 32–50 are also contributed by Father Jones.)

32 (p. 122).—From the date of Le Jeune's administration down to the cession of Canada in 1763, the superior of the mission of New France was at the same time rector of the college of Quebec.

33 (p. 123).—Fr. Le Mercier, on May 11, 1656, appointed pro tempore Jérôme Lalemant vice-superior; it would seem that the latter acted as such until June 19.

34 (p. 125).—The printed Catalogue of 1749 says: R. P. Gabriel Marcol, Rector coll. & sup. gen. Miss. ab Octob. 1748; that of 1752 has: R. P. Carol. Germain, Sup. gen. ab anno 1752. If Fr. Charles Germain was nominated in 1752 the nomination was not carried into effect. I have found no administrative acts signed by him as superior during that year, while there are at least two signed by Fr. Marcol in 1752,—one on February 2, the other on July 16. Moreover, the Catalogue of 1753 contradicts that of 1752 and reasserts: R. P. Gabr. Marcol, Superior gen. et Rect. coll. ab Oct. 1748.

35 (p. 126).—At the close of the year 1762, Fr. de Beaubois was stationed at the college of Vannes and was acting as moderator and spiritual director of the men's sodality there.

36 (p. 143).—Little is known of this priest; various allusions in contemporary documents indicate that he actually came to Canada, but was compelled to return soon to France, owing to a painful wound which unfitted him for missionary labor.

37 (p. 149).—Nouvel's name appears in the annual Catalogues, down to the year 1702, as resident in the Ottawa missions. Fr. de Crépeul, in a letter to the General, dated Quebec, Oct. 28, 1702, a very short time before his own death, mentions, among other matters, the deaths of FF. Nouvel, Bineteau, and Faure (Favre). So it is certain that Fr. Nouvel died in the spring or early summer of 1702.

38 (p. 149).—Louis le Boesme came to Canada when a mere boy. It is almost certain that he is the "little Louis" referred to in Journ. des Jés. of 1648 (vol. xxxii. of this series, pp. 91, 97), in which year he went to the Huron mission. Two years later, he returned to France (vol. xxxv., p. 53), to enter the Society there.

39 (p. 158).—There must have been some mistake made in copying. The last date is inadmissible, as Fr. Mermet himself, who wrote the obituary letter, died in 1716.

40 (p. 159).—He is not to be confounded with Poncet de La Rivière, who arrived in 1639. The present Joseph Antoine Poncet, in the years previous to his departure for Canada, had occupied the position of treasurer at Quimper (1685-88), and that of rector there (1691-92).

41 (p. 160).—The Abbés J. F. Buisson de St. Cosme and De Montigny speak in their letters of a Brother Alexandre, who seems to have been stationed at Chicago, in 1699, with Fr. Pinet.

42 (p. 163).—A letter from Father Alain X. de Launay, dated at Paris, Feb. 16, 1762, mentions Lauverjat as then living, although very old; but he could not yet have learned of that Father's death, which occurred after the last vessel had left Quebec. This letter of De Launay has been erroneously ascribed to Du Jaunay by the generally accurate and careful Fathers Backer (Écrivains de la Comp. de Jésus, t. iv., p. 761).

43 (p. 164).—In the annual Catalogue of 1714 it is stated: Profecti sunt P. Pet. Richer et P. Pet. Renauld. Fr. Richer arrived safely, but we have no further information of Fr. Renauld.

44 (p. 165).—He signed Boullenger, not Boulanger. In an official act, signed by his superior, the baptismal name given is not Jean-Baptiste, but Jean-Antoine.

45 (p. 172).—In the Répertoire du Clergé, his name is erroneously given as Quoad.

46 (p. 173).—Father Martin classed Boismilon among the lay brethren; he was certainly a priest, as he made his profession of the four vows at Quebec, June 21, 1740.

47 (p. 174).—His one signature, in the archives of St. Mary's College, Montreal, has more the appearance of "Bonnocamps" than "Bonniecamps."

48 (p. 175).—The commemorative document deposited in the corner-stone of the Quebec cathedral, laid Nov. 24, 1748, contains, among others, the name "D. Le Bansais, vice-pastor."

49 (p. 176).—He signed an act, adding "Jesuit" after his name, at the Hôtel-Dieu, Quebec, on Jan. 13, 1780, seven years after the suppression of the Society.

51 (p. 210).—An alleged portrait of Father Marquette. In sundry volumes of our series, we have published photo-engravings of the several oil portraits of Jesuit missionaries to New France painted by Donald Guthrie McNab, now of Toronto, for St. Mary's College, of Montreal. These were chiefly based upon authentic contemporary engravings, and are considered creditable likenesses of the early Fathers. Father Jacques Marquette is not represented in the McNab portraits, because no likeness of that famous missionary was then known to exist. A letter of Father E. Mollet, then at Laon, France (the birthplace of Marquette), to Father Felix Martin, dated Aug. 19, 1846, and preserved in the archives of St. Mary's College, shows that at that time there was no tradition surviving in the Marquette family relative to the existence of a portrait of the famous missionary explorer.

Rev. A. E. Jones, S.J., the archivist of St. Mary's College, writes to the Editor: "Jacques Viger, the first mayor of Montreal, though an indefatigable seeker for anything of interest concerning Marquette, makes no mention, in his voluminous notes, of any likeness of the great discoverer; nor does he hint at the existence of any in Canada or elsewhere. Had it been in the custody of any of the religious communities, he certainly would have ferreted it out, as he had done in the matter of portraits of other Canadian celebrities. Bibaud, jeune, in his Panthéon Canadien (1858), p. 301, gives a list of Viger's successes in this field of research."

Out of this darkness, there has at last come a hopeful ray of light. February 19, 1900, the artist McNab wrote to the Editor from

ALLEGED PORTRAIT OF JACQUES MARQUETTE, S.J.

Toronto, declaring that he had discovered what he believed to be a contemporary portrait of Marquette. In the course of the correspondence which ensued, Mr. McNab reported that in the winter of 1896-97, while walking along Little St. James street, Montreal, he "overtook two French boys drawing a hand-cart loaded with rubbish and scraps of broken boards, on top of which was thrown an old panel, the shape of which attracted my attention. Picking it up, I inquired as to where they had found it. 'O, all of this wood is from an old house.' But they would not speak further, whether from fear or ignorance; however, they were pleased to part with it for a little silver."

Mr. McNab says that at the time he thought little of the panel, save that it appeared to hold an old picture. After keeping it until the autumn of 1899, he began to remove "the dirt which was held fast with many coats of varnish . . . and it has taken much time and great care, owing to the cracked condition of the paint. The face is a wonderful fine example of modeling and coloring, and could be mistaken for a work of Rembrandt, were it not for the signature, 'R. Roos, 1669,' above which are two lines which I take to be as explanatory of the model; though cracks and dirt have defaced most of the words, save 'Marquette de la Confrérie de Iésus' which is quite legible. On the back of the panel, which is $13\frac{3}{4} \times 17\frac{3}{4}$ inches, and about half an inch thick, there has been carved 'Pere Marquette,' strong and deep—but this carving evidently is not by a contemporary." The foregoing account is an amalgamation of several letters by McNab.

Photographs of the panel, both front and back, were secured through Mr. McNab's helpful kindness, and sent to Father Jones, at Montreal, and the latter, with characteristic thoroughness, reported at intervals upon his investigations. Writing in March, 1900, he said: "The cracked state of the surface, evidenced by the photographs, is a prima facie indication that the work is not of recent date. The artist must have been one of no small merit: as the details of the face are so exquisitely reproduced, and the features as perfect as if taken with a camera. The painting is the representation of a man of the years of Marquette in 1669, who, as we know, was born June 1,* 1637. The placidity of expression, and the absence of all trace of that airy arrogance which characterizes the fanciful features and attitude of Trentanove's statue, correspond perfectly with what we know of Marquette's gentle and unassuming nature. As for the style of the lettering in the name cut into the wood on the reverse of the panel, I attach no importance to it; it is evidently an afterwork, and not being in keeping with the writing of the time, say the middle of the 17th century, can give us no clue to the age of the painting. As there is no trace of the artist's name or of the date of the prints sent me, I can form no opinion as to the concordance of the lettering with the literal or numerical characters of the period.

"Marquette reached Canada in September, 1666. The date on the portrait is 1669. Consequently, it is either a copy of an original existing previously to that date in France, or else we must say that it was executed in Canada. The latter supposition is not admissible. The artist's signature is R. Roos. There were several painters of that surname, but no 'R.' Roos. Elihu Rich's Handbook of Biography (London, 1863) gives the following: John Henry, a pupil of Adrian de Bie, 1631-1685; Theodor, his brother, 1638-1698; Philip, second son of John Henry, commonly called 'Rosa de Tivoli,' from his long residence there, a great painter of animals and landscapes, 1655-1705; John Melchior, brother of the latter, 1659-1731; Joseph, grandson of Philip, a painter and engraver, about 1728-1790; and finally Nicholas Roose (sic), whose proper name was Liemacker, a painter of Ghent, 1575-1646.

"Relying upon the dates just given, it could be a production of John Henry, or Theodore, or Philip, or lastly of John Melchior; but if the 'R.,' as an initial of a baptismal, or in a particular case, of an assumed name, be correct, it would point to Philip, who on this occasion, would be presumed to have signed 'R[osa] Roos.'

"The social standing and easy circumstances of the Marquettes—who formed one of the 'first families,' if not the most distinguished, of Laon—would, of course, account for their employing so eminent an artist to duplicate, in 1669, a painting then in their possession; for Marquette himself was already in Canada, or rather at the mission du S. Esprit on Lake Superior. Nor must it be forgotten that as yet he had in no wise distinguished himself as a great discoverer, so that the duplicate would have been ordered by some one of his relatives merely as a remembrance of an absent member of the family: although there is no record of this copy, or of any other, ever having been sent out to Canada. There is no record of any such portrait in the official inventory (Québec, March 28, 1800) of Father Casot's effects, which was made immediately after his death (see Rapport du Comité Spécial de la Chambre d'Assemblée &c., 1824, pp. 232 et ss.). Moreover, the archives of the various religious communities of Quebec are silent on the point.

"Since the history of this interesting panel is unknown, the whole question of its genuineness and authenticity must be decided by a critical examination of the signature, date, and inscriptions. Until this investigation is held by experts competent in the matter, whatever our own personal impressions and wishes may be, the friends of historical research will, I fear, suspend judgment."

At intervals during the summer and autumn of 1900, Father Jones and the Editor discussed the panel, in conversation and by letter, but neither found it convenient to visit Toronto to personally inspect the portrait; indeed, such a visit could be of slight avail, for it was felt that its authenticity could not well be established upon this side of the Atlantic. Then, too, the volume (lix.) containing the Marquette papers had long gone to press, and there appeared small excuse for publicly commenting on the matter until more was known.

November 12, as proofs for the present volume were being read, Father Jones wrote: "To-day I have something of interest to add to what I have already written you, in the matter of the Marquette portrait. A month or so ago I sent one of the photo-prints to Rev. A. Hamy, S.J., who is stationed at Boulogne-sur-mer, France, and who is much interested in all that relates to Père Marquette. I thought I had sufficiently explained to him that the lucky discoverer of the portrait was Mr. McNab, in spite of which he gives me undue credit for the find, and adds: 'I congratulate you on having found the likeness. You will now be glad to hear that there is every likelihood of its proving authentic. The day after I received it, I met with the grandson of a Mr. Dagneau de Richecourt, whose wife was a Marquette. This person [the grandson] unhesitatingly assured me that he saw in the picture a striking resemblance to one of his two uncles.' Father Hamy has ordered a large-sized painting from the print, and when this is completed he will have an engraving made. In the October number of the Études, a Paris review, the same Father has a short but very interesting article on Marquette, wherein he indulges in the hope of yet being able to trace to its lurking place a portrait of the great discoverer, which is said to exist somewhere in France."

In view of this opinion from one who is probably the best living authority upon Marquette, the Editor deems it prudent at last to present, in the final volume of our series, a statement of this interesting discovery of Mr. McNab, and a half-tone engraving of the panel in question. As stated by Father Jones above, the photograph fails to reveal the obscure signature and inscription described by the finder. Every admirer of one of the most lovable characters in the history of American exploration, will hope that it may eventually be found that the noble physiognomy here depicted was that of the saintly Marquette.

Most of the other documents thus published by Shea are mentioned in this "List of Authorities;" we have omitted them from our series for reasons given in vol. lxiii., note 9, as possessing too little historical value, or as being largely a repetition of other documents which we have already given.

53 (p. 266).—At a meeting of the Anthropological Society of Washington, D. C., held May 23, 1899, the name "Amerind" was proposed as a substitute for the term "American Indians," and met with a general approval from the ethnologists there present. This name "is proposed as a designation for all the aboriginal tribes of the American continent and adjacent islands, including the Eskimo."
